

The first time Luton went to Southampton this season to play a United League match, the weather was so bad that the game could not take place, but when they went again on Wednesday there was nothing to interfere with their enjoyment, if we except the nice little total of eight goals piled up against them. But they were doubtless saving themselves for Saturday.

* * *