

LUTON v. NORTHAMPTON.

A large holiday crowd witnessed this match on Wednesday (Boxing Day), when Luton mustered chiefly reserves: Ord; McCurdy and White; Williams, Farr and Dawson; Durrant, Saxton, Barker, Clifford and Brown. Mr. Beardsley, of Woolwich, was the referee.

It was a very poor game, combination being lamentably absent. The heavy ground caused the players to slide about, and provided some fun for the crowd. There was no score at the interval. In the second half, a rush by Barker enabled Durrant to open the score, and Saxton scored No. 2 with a fine, long shot. While Luton were dallying with the ball, the Northampton forwards, who throughout showed plenty of energy, found an opening and beat Ord.

Result: Luton 2, Northampton 1.
