

NORTHAMPTON V. LUTON.

The visit of Luton to Northampton on Easter Monday not only attracted a big gate, but produced a splendidly contested game, in which neither team was able to find the net. Though Luton had the advantage of a strong wind in the first half, play ruled in favour of Northampton, Benbow, Frost, and Murray being prominent in the attack. The "Cobblers" in the second half, however, had to play largely on the defensive, Durrant and McKee raining in shots, but all to no purpose, though Perkins only just succeeded in saving a particularly hot shot from the first-named just before the finish.
