

LUTON v. READING.

At Reading this season Luton lost by one goal to love, and the return match with the biscuit men was played on the Bury Park on Tuesday, and ended in a win for Luton by two goals to nil.

The game was played in an incessant down-pour of rain, and there was not a large attendance for Luton's last match at home. In the home side there were one or two alterations, R. Hawkes played inside and Penman outside on the left forward wing, Eaton (inside) and Kellett (outside) being on the other wing. Pritchard took R. Hawkes' place in the half line and Dow was substituted for Turner.

In spite of the soft turf, the game was fast and exciting. Eaton opened the scoring for Luton in the first quarter of an hour, and in the second half from a splendid opening made by Kellett, the same player added a second goal. Reading put in some good play, and though they had hard luck in not scoring, still they were lucky to get off so light. Result :

Luton.....	2 goals,
Reading.....	nil.
