TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR v. LUTON.

On Monday at Tottenham, Luton defeated the 'Spurs in a postponed Southern League game by 2—1, which was a well-deserved success for the better team. The visitors, who played the same team as last Saturday, worked in a bustling, business-like way, but were one down at the interval, through Platt making no attempt to stop a shot by Stansfield from 20 yards distance. Soon after the resumption, Pickering headed the equaliser as the result of a clever individual run by Gittins and Brown scored the winning point from a centre by Barnes. The Luton backs and half-backs and Brown, Pickering and Warner all showed to advantage.
