

DEFEATED, BUT NOT DISGRACED.

LONDON PRESS: "Hard lines, old chap. Kindly accept this little gift for a mascot. I think you are sadly in need of it."

FORTUNATE RANGERS.

"Luton lost but gained the honours in a good game. Although the points went to Queen's Park Rangers, the honours went to Luton in the match at Park Royal. For the greater part of the game the visitors were pressing. They played football of quite a superior class, too, but they wanted just the touch of luck that went to the home side."—Extract from London Press.
