

LUTON v. BRENTFORD.

Yesterday, in the Southern Alliance, Luton made a draw at Brentford, each team finishing with two goals to its credit. At half-time the home side were leading by two goals to one, Luton's point having been secured by Stephenson. The equalising goal was obtained by Bob Hawkes—who played a fine game in the forward line—soon after the re-start.
