

SOUTHERN ALLIANCE.

LUTON DEFEAT MILLWALL.

Luton retained their position at the head of the Southern Alliance on Wednesday by defeating Millwall, at Luton, by 2-1. The match was of particular interest because of the old rivalry between the two Clubs, the fine performance of Millwall in the Southern League and the fact that Brown and Moody, two old Luton players, were in the team. The weather was about as bad as it could be and the ground was accordingly treacherous, but the players rose above the conditions and gave a good display. Luton were pressing during most of the first half, and scored through Thompson and Streeton. Stephenson also netted, but was given offside, a decision which was admitted on all hands to be a bad one. After the interval Millwall improved, but could only score once and then luckily. A penalty was awarded against Wilson for handling, and again the referee was palpably wrong. The Millwall! Wilson took the kick, and though Abbott, who played a splendid game, saved the shot, Wilson scored easily from the rebound. Luton fully deserved their victory. Score:—

LUTON 2, MILLWALL 1.
