

LUTON STILL ON THE SUMMIT.

THE STRAWHATTER: I don't anticipate any serious opposition from this Stoke fellow, but I must confess the strides that Brentford are making are too great for my liking."
[Brentford continue to win and are now third on the table, and with a game in hand are only two points behind Luton].