

NOT IN THESE

South Shields endeavoured, without success, to change the venue of next Saturday's Cup-tie to their own ground. Successive offers were made, but the Luton Directors named a sum which they thought would effectually spoil the idea of going North—and their surmise has proved correct. So Luton will have an opportunity on Saturday of witnessing what should prove a "battle royal" between "North" and "South."

We have asked Mr. Bernard Hugh to specially draw a cartoon for reproduction on the match card for Saturday next.
