The Strawhatter (as he views the effect of the Caerphilly Fertiliser upon his Goal Average): "That's another nine since last Saturday. My word! If I could only get some more of this stuff, I'd have the best average in the country."

[On Saturday, at Caerphilly, Luton defeated the Welsh club by 9 goals to nil. Luton have now scored more goals than any other club in the First or Second Division of the Southern League.]
