

A REST BY THE WAYSIDE.

The Injured Straw-biter (as he views the rapidly disappearing figure of the Groydon Commoner): "Ahl well. There's only one fellow passed me so far; but, Great Scott! if I don't get a move on there's no knowing how many more will pass me before the month is out."

(This morning Luton were still second on the League table.)