FOOT

RUSADER).

Still un in home mand we had done specta and we mand on Mon to Mon to Mon to Monthly in remark, for he football s ond notba antatives was ng long way from ng long way from ng long way from the way from the way from and have to have and have to have and to any go-act season. days. I am not gon individual playors, of my views in the " can be no question the many changes if we od in the Southern Le ive man good in bs h. lance the f the clubs who were tances from playing expotball, have done except the firm of the country of bs n 1 wn by the the money it cost to coach Luton. of the sort will get a really first knows the gan ould be worth man could be ite sure comet be done before rard line. such a ma am quite s ve to be d as forward So far as the halves are concerned, here cain there needs revision. Bob Hawkes and red Hawkes are getting on in years, but who in deny that they were not as good as any of have had? Important as is a sound dence, goal scoring is equally so, and the only ay to ensure consistency in this respect is obtain halves and forwards who can underand each others' play. It is not for me to ye whom the directors shall retain or shall ut company with, and I am not one of the company with, and I am not one of the company with a great sweep. The fliculties besetting Luton visit other clubs like manner, and the country is being oured for talent, but only here and there has a club meet with success. The nucleus the present team must be retained, anyway, r we cannot trust to luck, even if they are So far as gain there i red Hawkes an deny that e have had ence, goal so ay to ensu-

will first

like man coured for ones a club the preser or we cann-opt as under trup. of Newman turning up a c, so far, the only comfor, unless, as I hope, some in found among the more than the capture of the capture on think that any other have tree further with the mind, has the making on he is captule of the capture. the possibilities of Newron next year are, so fau have at present, unless no good has been found played at Watford la

The possibilities of Newman turning Luton next year are, so far, the only owe have at present, unless, as I hope, thing good has been found among the who played at Watford last night.

great hopes of Barliss turning out a cout at present I do not think that any of the strangers we have tried fustificationate in persevering with them. ocals, Hull, to my mind, has the main a good player, but how far he is cap improvement I do not know. Time is thing in such matters. What the dwant, and what they know they war roung players who will jump to the fare after the same thing, the difficulty saming is obvious.