

GIVING HIM A BLUE FIT.

THE HATTER (as he places the "Simms' " Hat on his customer's head): " You don't think it's comfortable. Why, sir, I think it's a perfect fit and suits you down to the ground. It's very fashionable and most of my customers wear it when they come to this town. I am preparing a similar one called 'The Cup-Tie,' to fit Second Division Heads, and have a customer already in view."

[On Saturday, Luton Town defeated the lowly Brentford by two goals to nil, thereby registering their eighth victory of the present season. On Monday in the draw for the last qualifying round of the F.A. Cup Competition, Luton were drawn to play Rotherham County away.]
