

MILLWALL v. LUTON.

WELL-CONTESTED GAME AT NEW CROSS.

At New Cross. The weather was cold, and there were 17,000 spectators present to witness the game between Millwall and Luton.

A well-contested first half went slightly in favour of Millwall, for whom Thompson spoilt two glorious scoring chances by weak shooting.

There was more method in the Luton forwards, Butcher dribbling finely, but Riddell and Hill defended soundly.

Bassett shot wide from an opening by Bookman.

At half-time there was no score.

From a penalty against Tirrell, Riddell hit the bar. From the rebound the Luton forwards raced away, and Butcher, from Bassett's pass, scored after fifteen minutes.

Vigorous play followed, the Millwall forwards being very lively.

After twenty-six minutes Richmond passed forward for Thompson to equalise..

Millwall were frequently dangerous.

Result: Millwall 1, Luton 1.
