

BRENTFORD, AS EVERYONE KNOWS, IS THE HIVE OF A GREAT BEE INDUSTRY - AND KIND CITIZENS SHOW SIGHTSEERS THE GRAVES OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN

STUNG TO DEATH. - NATURALLY, ALL REGARDED LUTON AS AN EASY BIT OF STRAIGHTFORWARD STINGING, - SO BEES AND THEIR TRAINERS

CAME FROM ALL THE NEIGH-BOURING SHIRES, HAMLETS, AND ADJACENT DWELLINGS TO SEE

LUTON SEVERELY STUNG, - THE STING, HOWEVER, IF I MAY SAY SO WITH OR WITHOUT IMPUNITY, - WAS ON THE OTHER FOOT

FOR OUR BOYS

BUZZED UP THE FIELD FOR BASSETT TO STING HARD - AND - AFTER A PRETTY BIT OF BUZZING AND DRONING, SIMMS SETTLED ON THE BALL AND SCORED AGAIN - WHEREUPON HENDREN,

THIS IS HE - THOUGHT CRICKET A FAR FAR BETTER GAME - THE LIGHTNING LIKE MOVEMENTS OF BOOKMAN GIVING HIM A SLIGHTLY STRAINED EXPRESSION, - IT IS. RUMOURED A LUTON

LUTON AT BRENTFORD.

Luton Town paid their annual visit to Brentford, and literally swarmed over the "Bees," the Town wingers keeping the opposing defence in a state of continual trepidation. Bookman, ably fed by his colleagues, played a wonderful game, showing a very fine turn of speed. Altogether the victory was well deserved, and the performance should be repeated on Saturday.
