

YES, SIR. PAGNAM
COULD DRIBBLE A MUTTON
CHOP THROUGH A HERD
OF MAD BENGAL TIGERS

THE WATFORD VISIT TO LUTON AROUSES
INTENSE ENTHUSIASM AND MUCH GNASHING
OF TEETH. (THE GENTLEMAN WITH THE
FIVE POUND LOOK OF COURSE HAILS FROM

WATFORD), AND EVEN THE PRESS CAUGHT SOME OF
THE PARTY SPIRIT, THE LUTON
PEOPLE ARE THE DEVIL-MAY-
CARE GROUP TO THE RIGHT

A SHORT PAUSE ENSUED
WHILST A WATFORD HERO
TOLD THE CROWD ALL ABOUT PAGNAM - WHO,
WHEN TIRRELL
HANDLED, PROCEEDED
TO TAKE

A PENALTY IN THIS FASHION - BAILEY IN THE

MEANTIME PUTTING ON HIS CAP
AND PROPPING UP THE GOALPOSTS

PAGNAM - HOWEVER - COULDN'T - QUITE - BEAT - A VERY CLEVER CUSTODIAN!

LUTON v. WATFORD.

The visit of the Watford side to Luton is always regarded as quite a local "Derby" day, and Saturday proved no exception to the rule. Some good play and funny incidents ensued, Luton being rather unfortunate in not grabbing the points.