

LUTON AT CHARLTON.

HERE WE HAVE

A STRIKING PICTURE
OF THE CROWD GOING
TO THE MATCH—THE CLERK OF THE WEATHER BEING
RESPONSIBLE FOR THE LARGE AUDIENCE THAT GATHERED

SHOWER
CHART.
FOR APRIL

KNEE DEEP IN PRIMEVAL
SLIME, — HERES HOW LUTON SCORED

HOAR AND HIGGINBOTHAM

SUBMERGED,

FEELING THEIR — WAY

CAUTIOUSLY

GOALWARDS, —

AND THUS TWAS

A SIMPLE — MATTER — TO SCORE!

SOME INTERESTING STATISTICS

THE RAINDROPS THAT FELL
AT CHARLTON, IF PLACED

TERRIFIC

THAT GREETED

SIDE BY SIDE WOULD EASILY WATER ALL THE ORCHIDS AT CADDINGTON — AND — THE

LUTONS GOAL, WOULD HAVE MADE DIOGENES
GREEN WITH ENVY!

Saturday found Luton playing in a downpour of rain, which, however, did not prevent them bringing back full points, thanks to Higginbotham's timely shot.
