

WALES -

SEEMS TO HAVE TAKEN THE
ROUT AT LUTON SEVERELY TO HEART, FOR THE WHOLE OF THE
PRINCIPALITY, INCLUDING THE

MAN WHO SWEEPS THE
SNOW OFF SNOWDON -

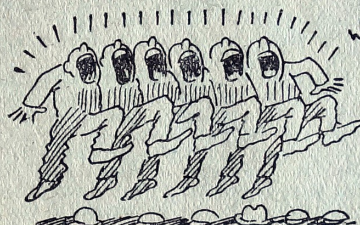

FORGATHERED AT SWANSEA ON

SATURDAY TO GIVE THE HATTERS
THE EMPTY HAT - SO HERE IS AN
ILLUSTRATION OF WHAT A SWANSEA

CROWD IS REALLY CAPABLE OF
WHEN AN OPPONENT GETS THE BALL -

JENNINGS CLEVERLY INTERCEPTS,

PASSES TO BUTCHER

WHO BEATS HIS MAN AND
SENDS CLARKSON

UP THE FIELD TO CENTRE TO
REID, - WHO MISSES -

BY INCHES - - - - - SO ALLS WELL, AND PERHAPS ITS JUST AS WELL WE DIDNT WIN, FOR THE ONLY WEAPON WE HAVE AT PRESENT TO PIT AGAINST AN INVADING FORCE IS THE OLD TANK IN WARDOWN PARK

LUTON AT SWANSEA.

The Welshmen were all out to avenge decisively their 6-1 defeat of Saturday week, but could only beat a stubborn defence by one goal, scored by Hole.
