

YEARS AND YEARS AGO, WILL JENNINGS & HIS BROTHER SAM LEFT HOME TO SEE THE WORLD AND EXPLOIT THE OFFSIDE THEORY

WELL, HOW ARE YOU, SAM.
OH FINE THANKS, I JUST FEEL AS IF —

AND ON SATURDAY SAM CAME ALL THE WAY FROM READING TO SEE HIS BROTHER WILL, — SAM

'OH!' 'COULD SCORE—'

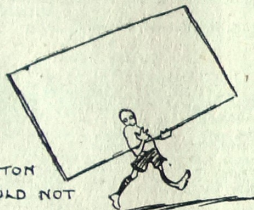

'OH' A COUPLE OF—

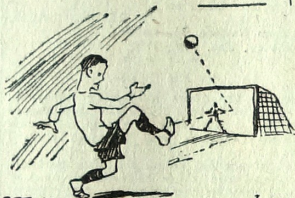

"GOALS TO DAY, LIKE THIS, AND THAT, WILL!"

TOLD WILL ALL ABOUT THE OLD HOME — TEARING HIMSELF AWAY FOR A MINUTE TO SCORE A COUPLE OF FINE GOALS, — TRY AS THEY MIGHT — LUTON COULD NOT GET THE BALL PAST KANE — BETWEEN YOU AND ME — I THINK KANE MUST HAVE BROUGHT A PIECE OF PLATE GLASS ON THE — FIELD HIDDEN IN HIS CAP — AND PUT IT UP IN FRONT OF GOAL!

AND NOW A PAEAN OF PRAISE TO A GREAT GOAL BY THE WIZARD WHO MANAGED TO BREAK KANE'S GLASS!

READING'S TRIUMPH.

Luton, deprived of the services of Reid and Higginbotham, lost to the "Biscuiteers" on Saturday by two goals to one, Sam Jennings, of Reading, scoring twice against the "Hatters."
