

HAVING DONE A LITTLE SHOOTING MYSELF ON SATURDAY, (MARKED WITH CROSS), I MUST CONGRATULATE THE 4000 OTHER PEOPLE FOR THEIR SHARE IN THE VICTORY.

ON THIS VOCAL DISPLAY WE WOULD WIN ANY YODELLING COMPETITION IN EXISTENCE OR THE CRYSTAL PALACE! IT IS PLEASING TO NOTE THAT

IN THE BREATHLESS INTERVALS, ONE COULD HEAR THE LOW CRY OF THE LEATHER AS IT SAILED INTO THE POMPEY NET, - & BEARING IN

MIND BANNOCKBURN, BILLERICAY, & BRUCE, WE TAKE OFF OUR PEDAL TAGELS ONCE AGAIN TO A GREAT SHOT, - & SCOT! ANDY KERR. HE & HIS FORWARD LINE WERE SO NIPPY THAT KANE MUST HAVE WISHED FOR NIGHT OR A DECENT SUPPLY OF SANDBAGS - WHILST HOTEN

WAS SO PLEASED TO SEE HIS OLD NAVAL CHUMS THAT HE RAN ABOUT NODDING TO THEM,

FINALLY NODDING PAST KANE - I DON'T THINK KANE NODDED BACK! - TUT! TUT! MR KANE, - MANNERS! DID ANYONE NOTICE THAT

THE PICTORIAL PHOTOGRAPHER BROUGHT A LARGE STOOL & A SMALL ASSISTANT UP TO THE POMPEY GOAL. IF LUTON KEEP SCORING LIKE THIS - HE'LL WANT AN ULTRA RAPID CAMERA & A FEATHER BED!

THE MATTERS' TRIUMPH

Luton Town more than pleased their supporters by giving the powerful Portsmouth eleven a decisive beating on Saturday, out-playing their opponents at all points. Kerr again was in wonderful shooting form, whilst Hoten got his first goal of the season, incidentally, against his old club.
