

AGAIN!

IS WITCHCRAFT DEAD!

MOST EMPHATICALLY & DECIDEDLY NOT,
FOR LATE ON FRIDAY
NIGHT THE WATFORD DIRECTORS
& REGINALD WILLIAMS CREEPT
CAUTIOUSLY FROM THEIR COUCHES

PROCEEDED TO PUT A REAL OLD
FASHIONED SPELL ON THE WATFORD
GOAL IN PREPARATION FOR THE MORROW.
THE INCANTATION MUST HAVE BEEN
BREWED JUST RIGHT, FOR THE LUTON

TEAM - AFTER THE HAZARDOUS PASSAGE
THROUGH THE TRACKLESS
DESERT TO WATFORD, WENT

STRAIGHT UP TO THE BALL & PROCEEDED
TO BANG IT FOR
90 MINUTES INTO THE WATFORD

GOALMOUTH WITHOUT AVAIL, - FOR
IF WILLIAMS & HIS 10 DEPUTY
GOALKEEPERS MISSED THE BALL,

THE GOALPOST WOULD FLING IT BACK WITH VIM, GUSTO & ABANDON.

HOWS THE ENEMY!
HORSMAN!

WILLIAM HE CHAINED IT!
ITS NEARLY

TO THE GOALKEEPERS

LUTON WERE FAR THE BETTER
TEAM, BUT THIS I ATTRIBUTE
TO THE FACT THAT WATFORD
WERE FAR TOO ANXIOUS FOR THE FINAL WHISTLE TO GO

SO WHY NOT SAVE TIME &
TROUBLE & ERECT AN ALARM
CLOCK OVER REGINALD WILLIAMS
HEAD! LUTON WERE UNLUCKY,
BUT THEY MISSED THEIR CHANCE

OH FRIDAY NIGHT! THEY SHOULD HAVE SEEN WATFORD'S
GOALKEEPER SAFELY OUT
OF THE WAY BEFORE THE
MATCH BEGAN! HOWARD

The match at Watford on Saturday was a repetition of the previous struggle at Luton. In spite of superior forward play, the Hatters could not break down a strong and tenacious defence, and so failed to wrest a victory for yet another season from Watford.
