

"IN THE DOLDRUMS."

DEDICATED TO ALL THOSE SPECTATORS WHO BROUGHT ALARM CLOCKS WITH THEM ON SATURDAY TO WAKE THEM UP IN TIME FOR TEA. — & ALSO TO JOSEPH TILL, THE TOWN FULL BACK, WHO

TOILED HARDER

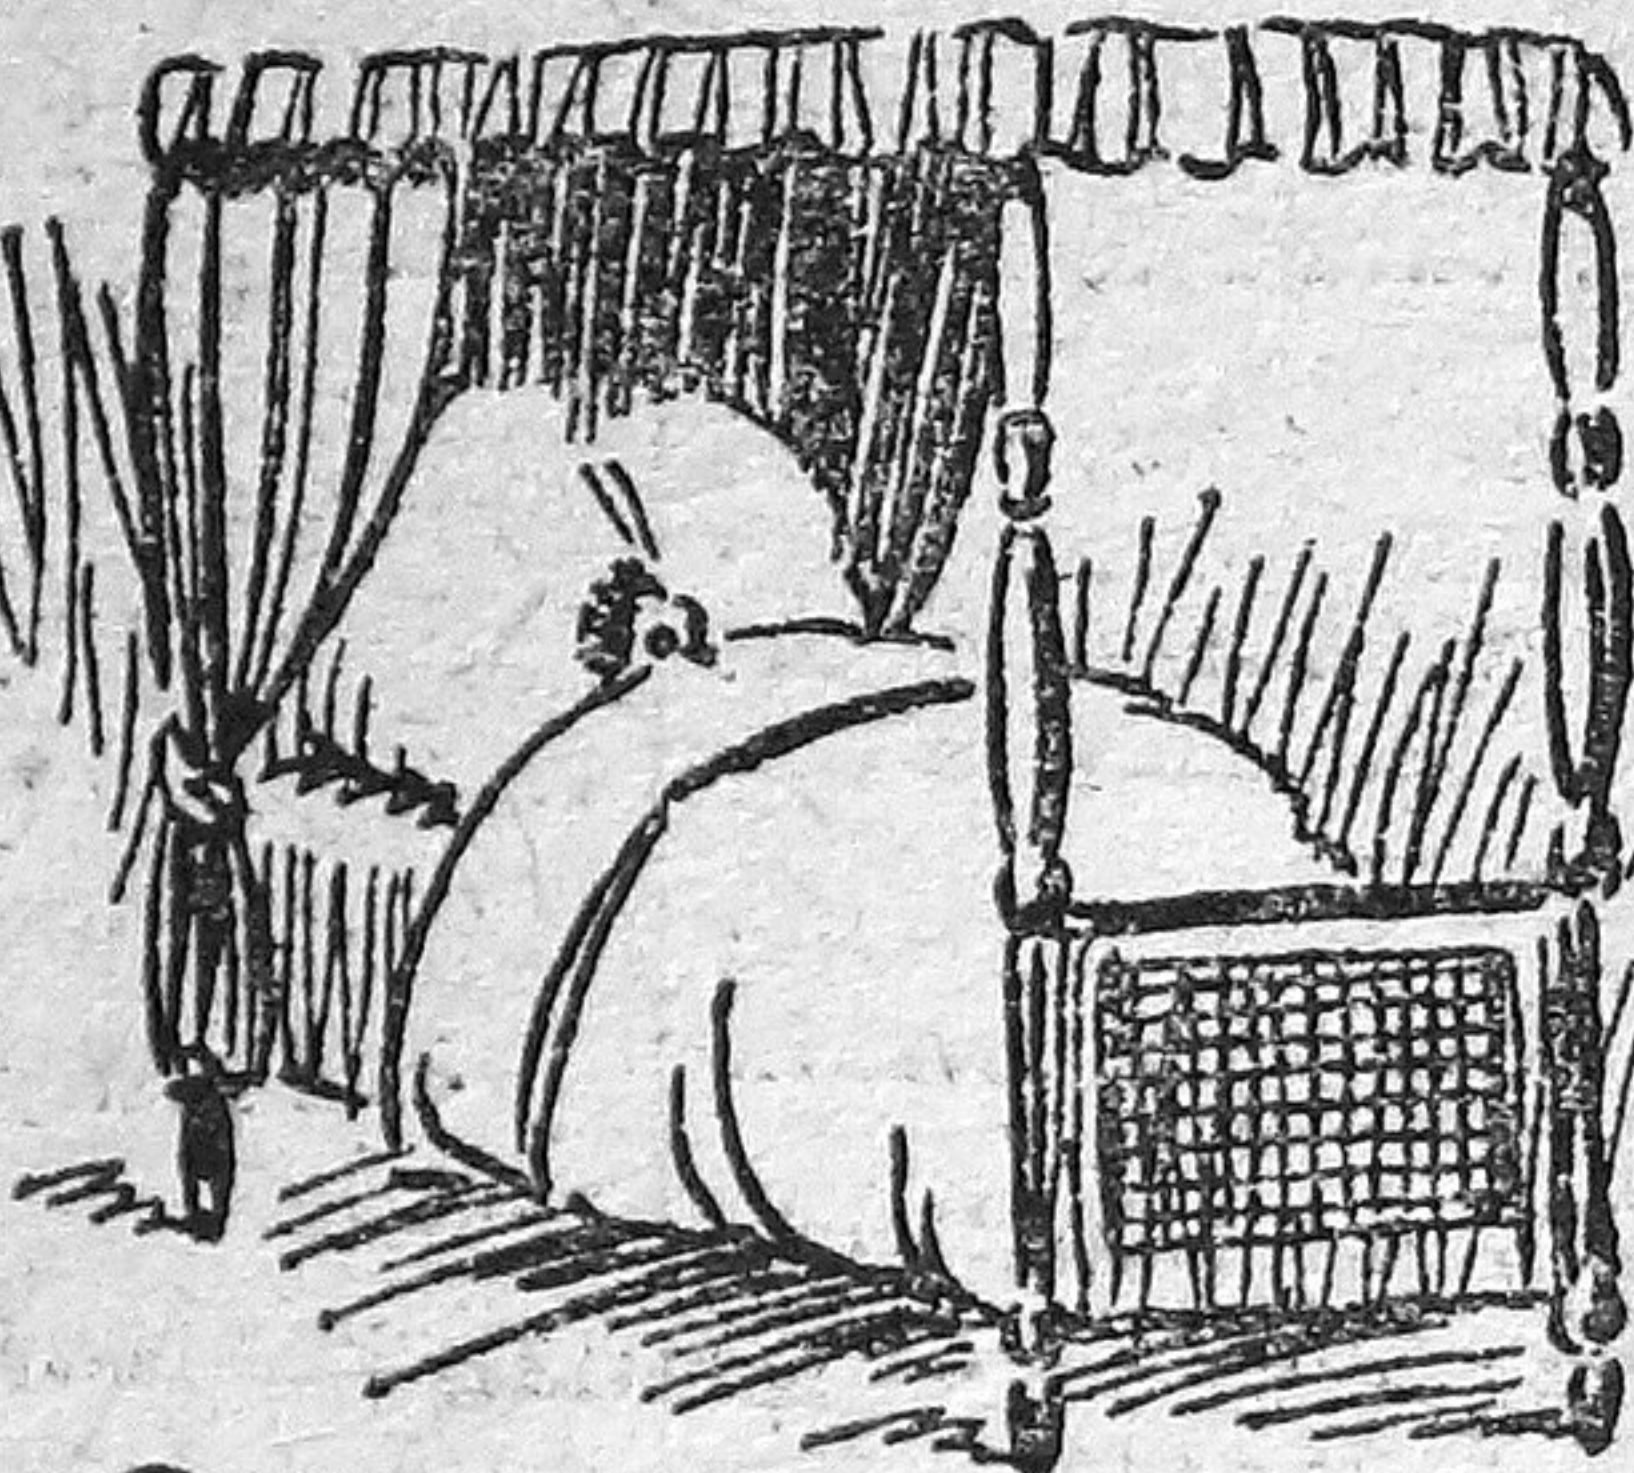

THAN ANY BLACKSMITH ALL THE AFTERNOON! I EXPECT HE WENT STRAIGHT TO BED AFTER THE MATCH & IS PROBABLY THERE YET!

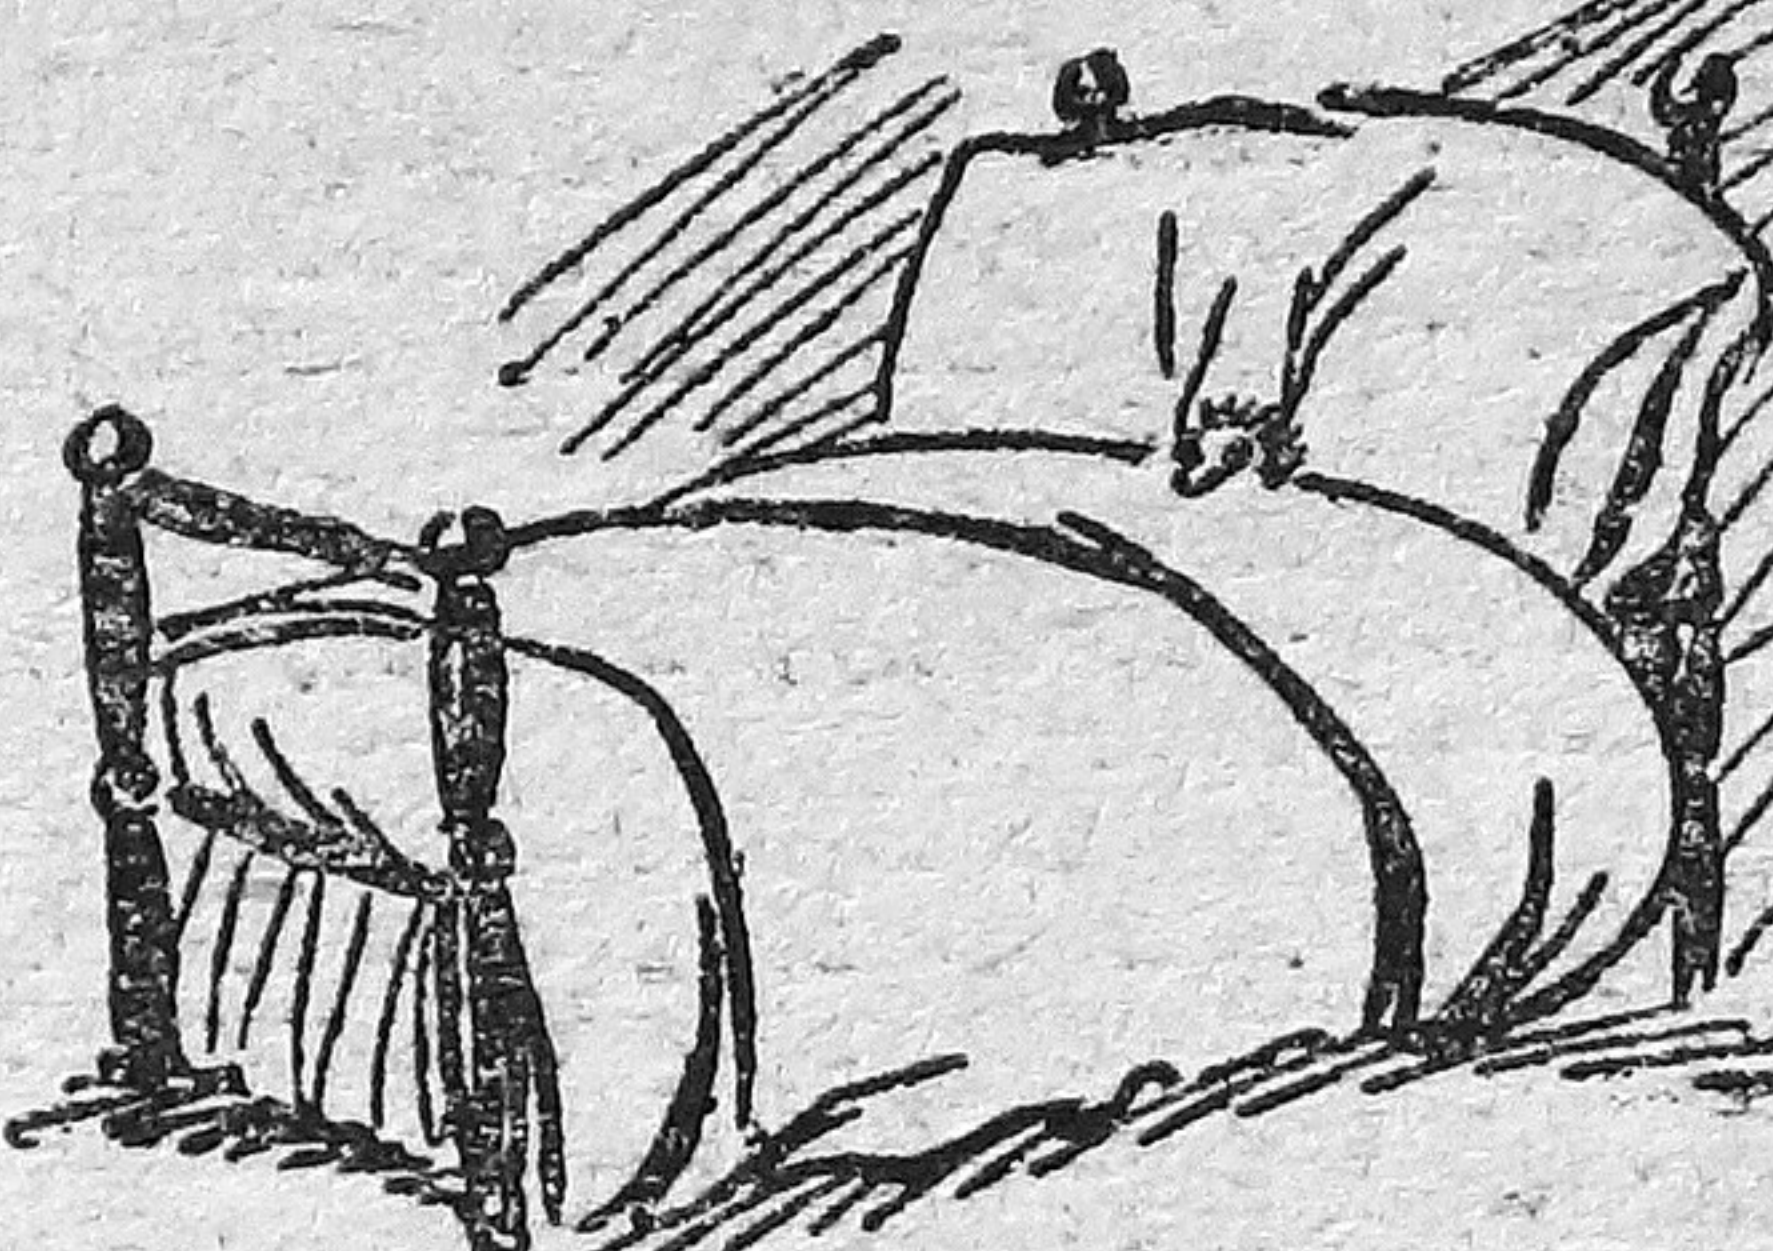

NOW WHILST STATION SANDWICHES ARE STILL UNDUBITABLY AS HARD AS STATION SANDWICHES,

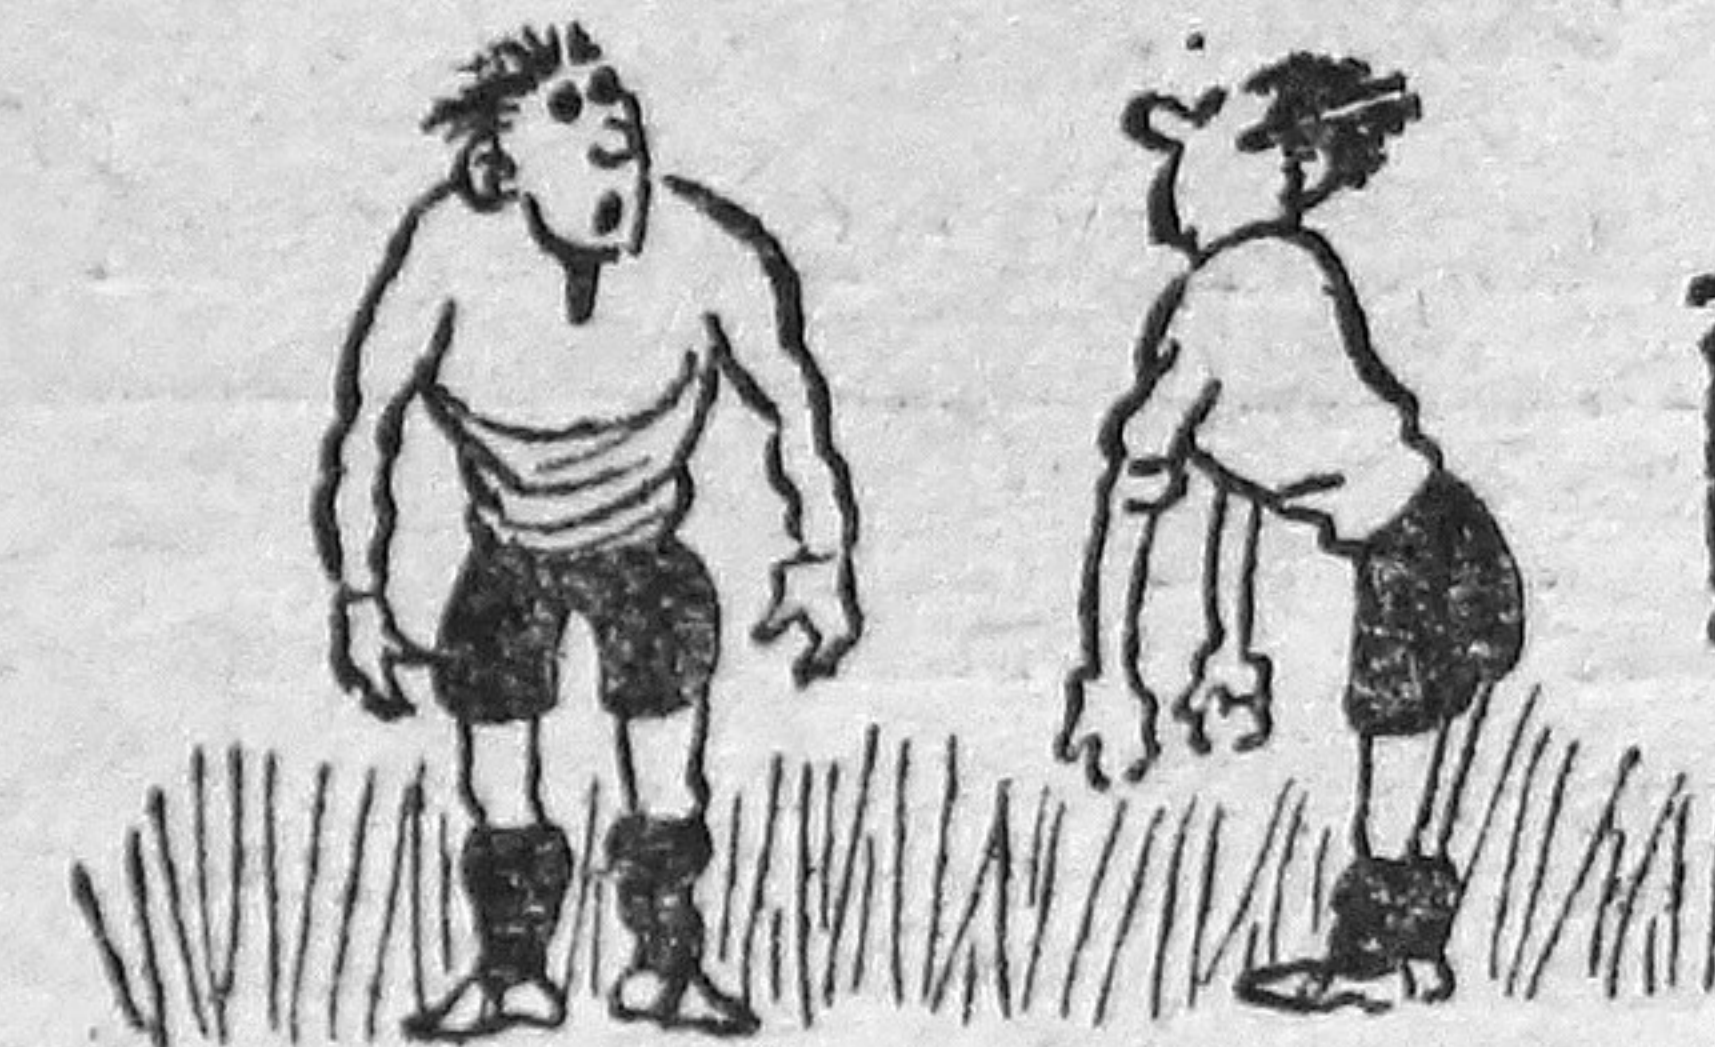

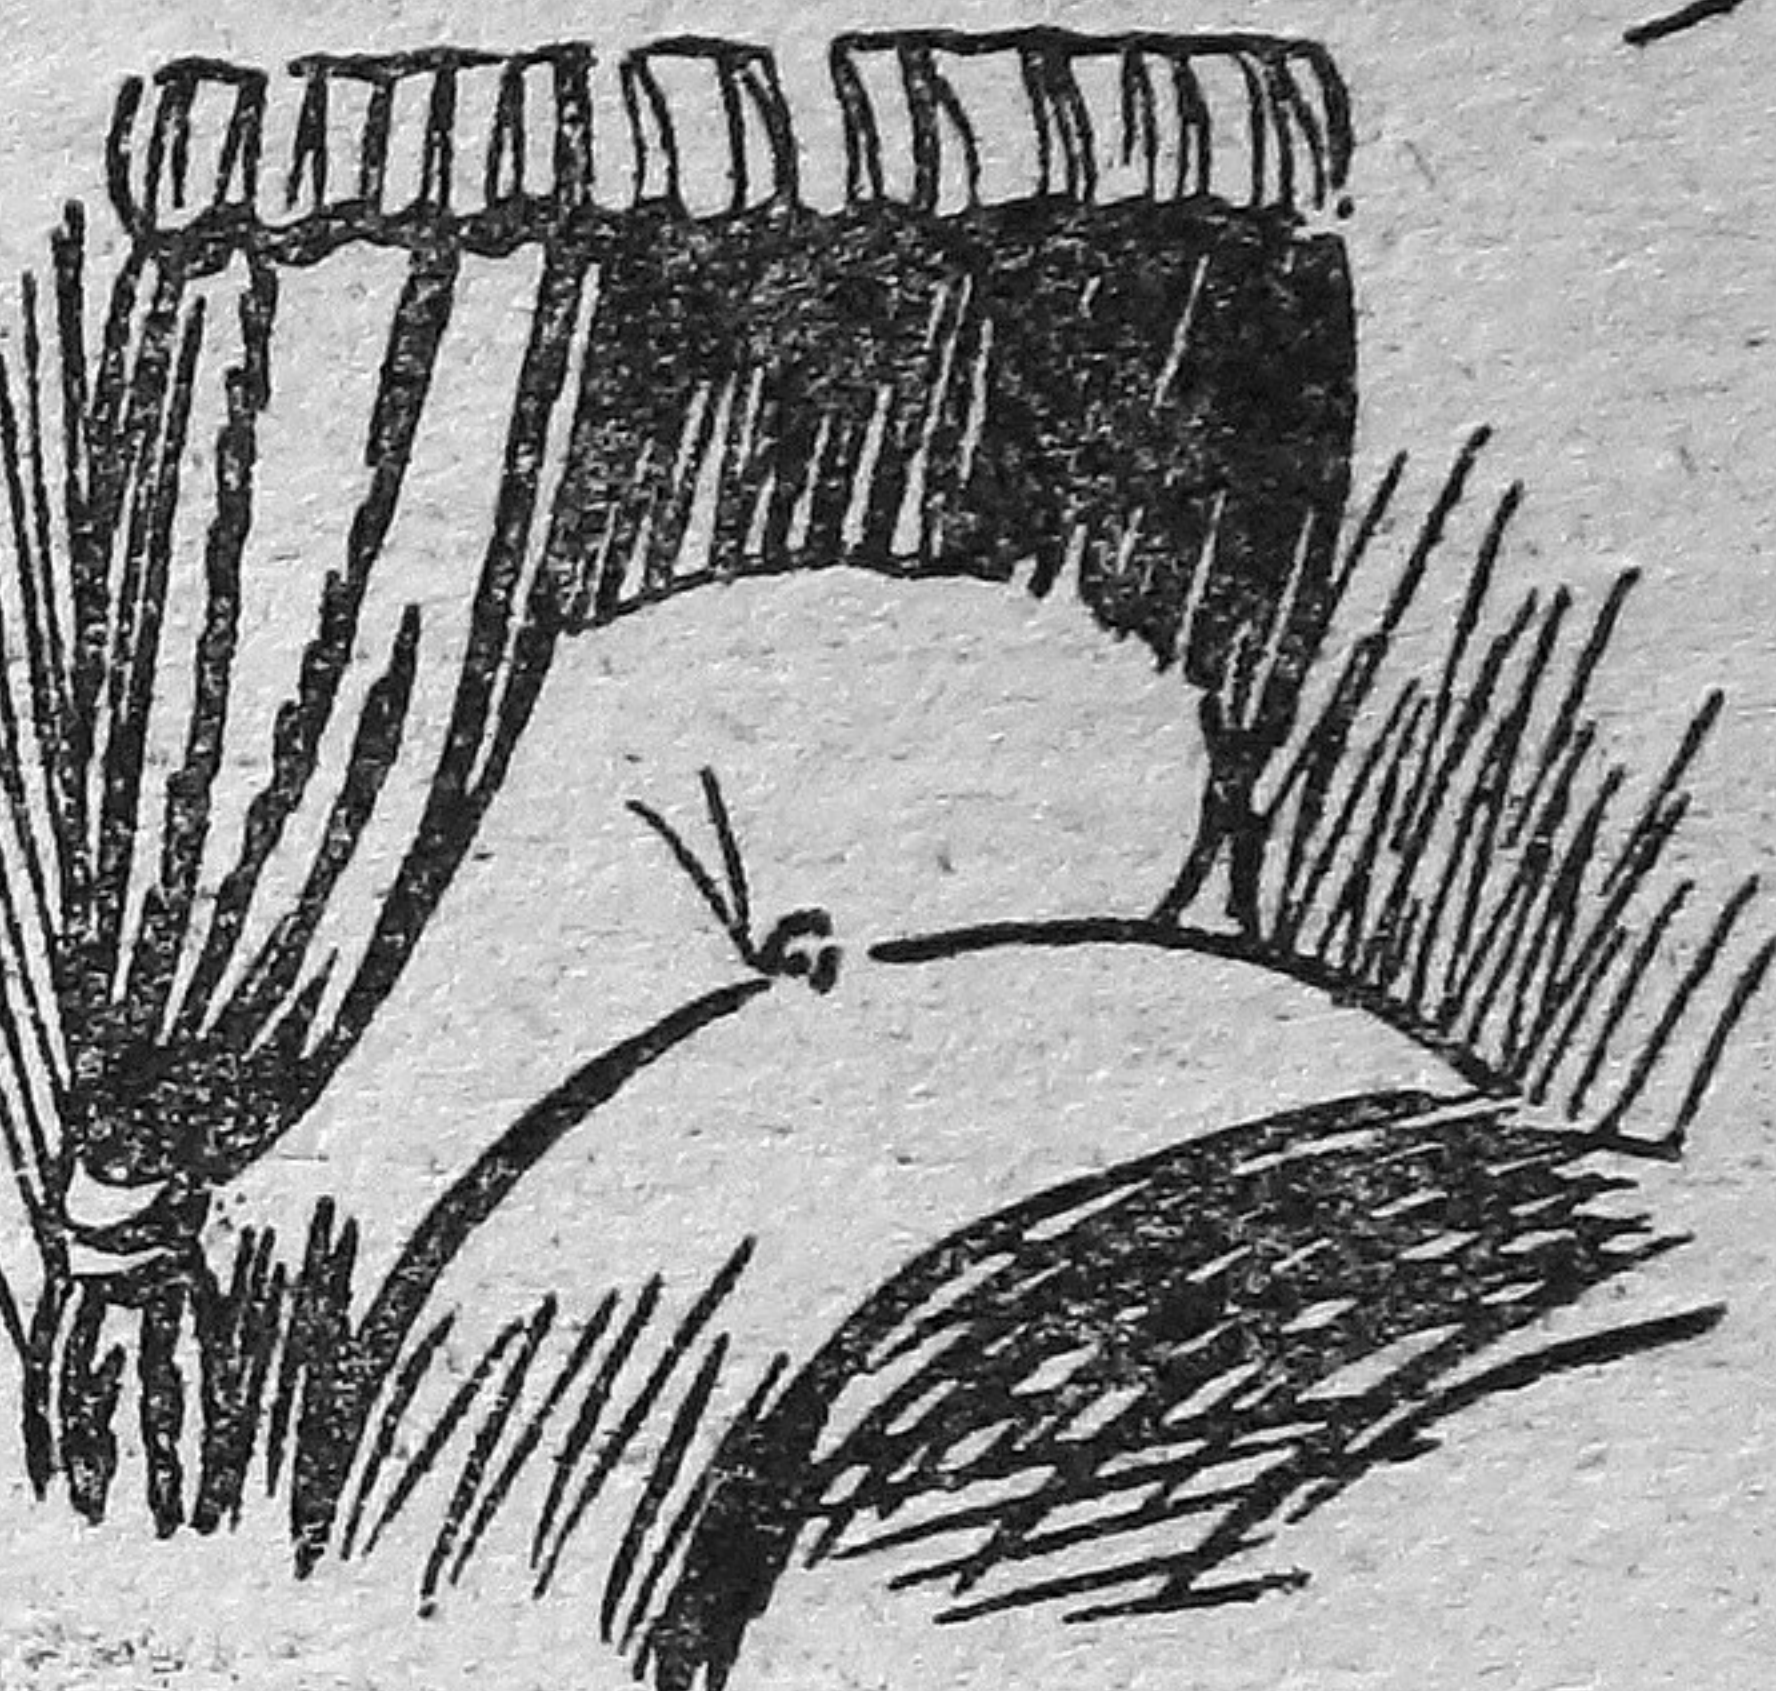

EVERYONE MUST ADMIT THE TOWN ARE A MERE SHADOW OR WRECK OF THEIR FORMER SELVES. —

GREEN HAS A BAD FOOT, —

DANSKIN ISN'T FIT, — & LIKEWISE ANDERSON,

SO CAN YOU BLAME THE FORWARD LINE IF THEY FAILED TO RECOGNISE ONE ANOTHER. — WOULDN'T

A FEW VISITING CARDS HAVE MADE ALL THE DIFFERENCE IN THE PLAY?

CHARLTON WON, BUT THEIR RED JERSEYS HAD A LOT TO DO WITH IT — NOW IF OUR MEN HAD WORN COLOURED SPECTACLES

THE FORWARDS MIGHT HAVE SHOWN A GLIMPSE OF THE OLD FORM!

THE TOWN BADLY DISAPPOINTED THEIR SUPPORTERS, ON SATURDAY AT HOME, WHEN THEY LOST BY ONE GOAL TO CHARLTON ATHLETIC.
