

BY JAMES!

WE'VE ALL HEARD ABOUT TURNER'S TERRIBLE LEFT HAND — BUT WHAT ABOUT JIM THOMPSON'S TERRIBLE

LEFT FOOT!

NOW JIM'S LEFT FOOT IS A LEGEND THAT HAS BEEN HANDED DOWN FROM FATHER

TO SON & ON WINTRY NIGHTS BY THE BLOW OF THE WOOD (I NEARLY SAID COAL) FIRES, THE TALE WOULD RUIN OF HIS TERRIBLE TOES!

JIM DOES NOT ALWAYS REMEMBER TO BRING HIS FOOT WITH HIM, BUT HE

HAD IT FOR HIS JUBILEE APPEARANCE ON SATURDAY, & FERGUSON THE GILLINGHAM GOALKEEPER WAS THE FIRST TO HAVE A GOOD LOOK AT IT! — HE SAW IT AGAIN A LITTLE THING OFTEN, SOME OF THE CLUBS WILL WANT TO DO A BIT OF SURGERY, — BUT I HOPE THEY SAW OFF THE WRONG FOOT!

Luton scored their sixth victory on Saturday — at the expense of Gillingham, the Strawhatters' clever forward play enabling Jim Thompson to score twice.
