

THE TOWN GO DOWN AT HOME.

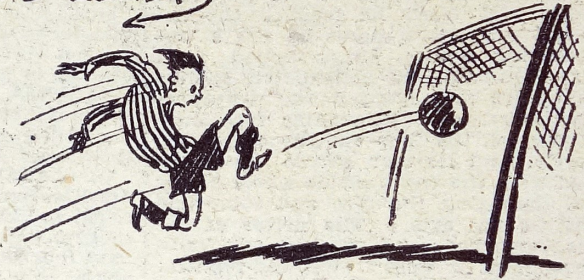

I THINK THE 3,000 ODD MILES JOURNEY TO MERTHYR LAST SATURDAY MUST HAVE TIRED LUTON OUT, BECAUSE THEY WERE STILL IN A DAZE ON MONDAY EVENING WHEN SMITH PASSED BACK TO WHERE BANES WASN'T, TO GIVE THE ORIENT THE LEAD.

THE LONDONERS ASKED SMITH TO DO IT AGAIN, BUT HE SIMPLY WOULD NOT, SO EDMUNDS OF THE

ORIENT DID IT HIMSELF, AND THE NOISE HE MADE

WOKE UP MR DRINNAN OF LUTON WHO

PUSHED THE CLAPTON GOALKEEPER & BALL INTO THE BACK OF THE NET!

LUTON LOST, BUT NO ONE CAN CONVINCE THEM IT WASN'T ALL A DREAM!!

Luton gave a listless display on Monday night against Clapton Orient. Was it their trip to Wales?
