

Luton Foiled By Dunn

PALACE FIND KEAN AT HIS BEST

Luton1 Crystal Pal.1

PALACE owed their point to the brilliance of Dunn. He gave a remarkable performance in a thrilling game.

Had Luton's attack been as efficient in marksmanship as in approach work, the home side would have won handsomely. Rennie scored their goal with a magnificent effort, and Barry's bow at a venture was just as praiseworthy.

The Palace were infinitely more dangerous in front of goal, but their chances were few and far between.

In a fast and exciting encounter, Luton's middle line was the dominating factor. Kean played wonderfully, and Fraser and McGinnigie were nearly as good. Mills and Roberts proved enterprising wingmen, but Rennie was the best forward on the field.

Parry and Crilly were stubborn defenders for the Palace, whose halves did well up to a point. Harry and Berry were the best forwards.
