

RIDING THE HIGH HORSE

The Leading Jockey: "I don't mind them hanging on her tail, so long as I'm hanging on to her head."
As all four leaders in the race for the Third Division Stakes were beaten on Saturday, Exeter City jumped from fifth place to first. The Devonshire club play the Palace at Selhurst on Saturday, so we may witness another change of leadership, as the Palace, Norwich City and Charlton are only one point behind.