CARDIFF CITY (after his short glide to Dreamland):—"Where am I, and who are you?"
THE STRAWHATTER:—"It looks as if you've come back to earth, and we are the lads who brought you down."
Cardiff City's successful flight in the League came to a sad end on Monday, when Luton Town, following Crystal Palace's example, inflicted a heavy defeat on the Welsh club, who conceded ten goals and failed to score themselves in the two matches.
