

SIGNALS AGAINST THE RAILWAYMEN

G.W.
Have gone to Luton.
Be back later.

The Town
were very confident & scored first

I wonder if the Railway service
was up to standard last Saturday as most of the Railwaymen seemed to be at Luton.

Swindon 'nettled'
by this & remembering the deeds of Harold Fleming & the Cheltenham Flyer

promptly equalised

At the interval we had an exhibition of bagpipe
playing & this so affected Luton that Stephenson
soon nettled the winning goal.

If
this sort
of thing
bucks Luton up
we could easily hire
a stalwart
from the Braemar Gathering.

We also had a demonstration of blind passing & it was lucky for Luton that Coen had the signal
against the Railwaymen.

Swindon Town put up a very good display at Luton, and although Luton just deserved their sixth consecutive victory, it was a close thing, and Swindon came very near springing a surprise.
