

BROKEN HAMMERS

West Ham 2
Luton 1. 2

What a game & what a crowd of 42,000, I have only depicted one spectator here, but the other 41,999 were very similar.

There were also 22 players 2 linesmen & 1 Referee etc. Of course there were really about 28 players for Barrett of West Ham counts as six anywhere.

A unique player is Mr. Barrett, he just stands & lets Nature take its course.

Although through the cigar smoke from the Directors' seats we saw Mangnall open for West Ham 'Castles in the Air' seemed to upser them so much that they could not shoot straight & the crowd behind would sway over. I think they were trying to breathe.

With memories of Whipsnade the Town played up like tigers & Ball with a giraffe like effort equalised.

After the interval Roberts put Luton ahead & Charlie Paynter's moustache went all Harry Tate, but just before time West Ham became 'ruffled' and equalised.

The Town won the replay so easily on Wednesday that West Ham are hiring an elephant from Whipsnade for the next tussle with Luton. Even Barrett isn't big enough!
