

Luton Thrashed And Given A Lesson In Craft

Cardiff City3 Luton Town0

PLAYING better as a team and showing more craft in their attack Cardiff gave Luton a lesson in football of the promotion kind.

Luton opened as if they meant business, but soon found the resourceful Cardiff defence like a rock. Bassett, Granville, and Scott broke up every effort made by the Luton forwards, of whom Roberts was outstanding.

When the Cardiff attack began to function the Luton defenders had to run hard to hold it, and it came as no surprise when Smith, the Cardiff leader, opened the score with a ground shot after 17 minutes' play.

Keeping a grip on the game and playing on top of Luton, Smith scored his second by sheer quickness in fooling his namesake by rounding him. Dolman was helpless to stop the shot.

Although Cardiff showed signs of tiring in the second half, thrills soon came again, and the crowd went wild with delight when Pugh scored the third after 61 minutes.
