

Luton Add To Their Goal “Harvest”

LUTON 4, BLACKBURN R. 1

CONTINUING their goal feast of a week ago, Luton added four more to their total—and but for taking things easily when they were in a commanding position, might easily have made it another six.

Although Blackburn had the better of the opening play, they did not trouble Dolman, and when the Luton forwards began to take a hand in the affairs Parris headed a glorious goal from Ferguson's centre. This was after only 10 minutes.

Play was fast, and Luton's forwards were more dangerous, but Parris twice missed easy chances.

Barron saved finely from Roberts and Dolman was cheered for a wonderful save. But the Rovers were not in the picture for long, and Ferguson scored a second goal for Luton after 42 minutes.

Playing with plenty of confidence, Luton had the Rovers penned in for a time, and with better finishing would have scored several goals.

OFFSIDE TACTICS

Vinall and Roberts were constantly harassing the Rovers' defenders, and on one occasion the road was wide open to goal. But no one was capable of putting the ball through.

After a clever dribble and shot by Vinall, Fergusson scored a third, in spite of the fact that the Rovers were so desperate that they frequently resorted to offside tactics.

Luton were always superior, but while they were taking things easily, Guest scored with a fine shot.

Dawes replied for Luton with a penalty.
