LEAGUE II.

By The Programme Editor.

CARDIFF CITY v. LUTON TOWN.

We welcome today old-time favourites in Luton Town. They gained League II status in 1936-37. When in League III (S.) their visits to Ninian Park were festive occasions. Luton supporters made Cardiff a feature visit. The varied assortment of straw hats worn to the match ended as souvenirs to City supporters. Happy days!

The Hatters have maintained a steady position in League II. This season Manager "Dally" Duncan (Scottish International of many caps), has a team capable in every department.

Flt.-Sergt. B. Streten, P.T. Instructor in the R.A.F., played for England against Wales in amateur Internationals last season. Small for a goal keeper, but very agile. Billy Hughes (Wales), and Frank Soo (England) are still in the top-grade as talented footballers.

The City field an unchanged team. Their present high-class form will provide a few problems for Luton to surmount. A grand game should delight the large crowd.

In last four games Luton 1, West Brom. 1, Barnsley 3, Luton 0, Luton 0, Plymouth 0, Bradford 2, Luton 2.

Cardiff City in like period: Sheffield Wednesday 2, City 1, City 3, Plymouth 0, City 1, Bradford 0, Notts Forest 1, City 2.
