

The Dog Which Almost Foiled Luton's Second Goal

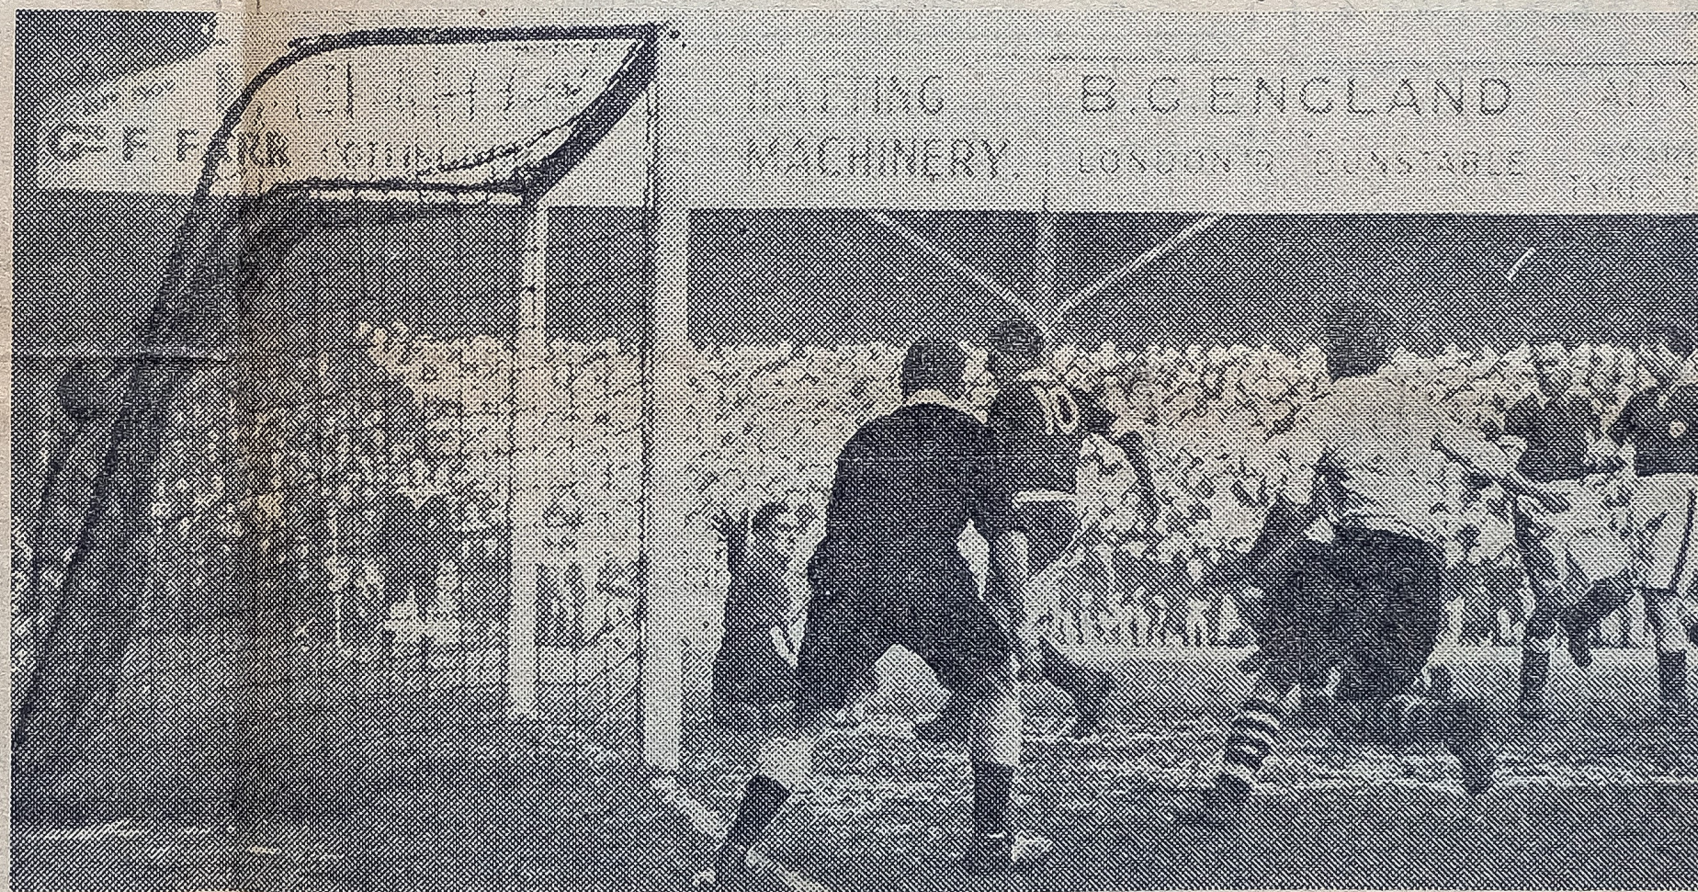

As goalkeeper McGraw fails to reach a high centre from Waugh in the tenth minute of Saturday's Luton v. Leicester Cup-tie, Brennan, Leicester left-back Scott and a dog which had strayed on to the pitch, race for the ball...Brennan won, and the ball flashed from his head into the net. (1915D). On the right is a section of the 26,280 crowd cheering the goal, which put the Town ahead 2-1. 1914D

—and this is where Brennan finished up. Flat on his face in the mud, out to the wide oblivious of the cheers, which are puzzling our canine intruder, who so nearly spoiled the move. 1916D

The back of the net bulges as Kiernan scores Luton's third goal two minutes after the interval. The inside-right is obscured by centre-forward Brennan. This goal, too, came from a Waugh centre. 1919D
