DO YOU KNOW ?

1—Which was the biggest victory in history in the semi-final of the F.A. Cup ?

2—Who is the only contemporary Football League professional who twice broke a leg in the game more than a dozen years ago ?

3—Who is the noted contemporary internationalist who never lived in the country of his birth after the first month of his life ?

4—Who was the inside forward who figured in a total of 65 First Division games in all in two successive seasons and never scored a goal ?

5—The only player over whom a Club's supporters ever organised a petition of protest when he was given a free transfer is a Football League Club Manager now. Who is he ?

6—Which famous international joined three Football League Clubs in the same locality, with an interval of 23 years elapsing between the first move and the third ?

PORTRAIT OF A PLAYER.

No. 22. D. McMILLAN.

Centre-half Duncan McMillan, who came to Blundell Park in March this year, was first seen by Grimsby Town's followers when he played for Glasgow Celtic at Grimsby in a friendly match in February.

"Mac" signed professional forms for Celtic four years ago and since then made more than 40 appearances in the Scottish Club's first team.

An electric welder by trade, he learned his football with Maryhill Harp a Glasgow junior side.

After a spell in Grimsby Reserves team he came into Town's League side for the first time against Brentford on April 9th.

He stands 5 ft. 11 ins. and weighs 12st. 4 lbs.

HERE'S THE ANSWER !

- 1—That of 6-0 by Newcastle United against Fulham in season 1907-8.
- 2—Herbert Blackshaw, the Oldham Athletic outside-left. He did so first with Altrincham in March, 1933, and then when on trial with Notts. County in September, 1934.
- 3—William Gorman, the Brentford and Irish International back. His parents are Scots who were on holiday in Sligo when he was born, and returned home a month later.
- 4—George Eastham, the present Rochdale inside forward. He appeared in 27 matches with Bolton Wanderers in 1936-37 and 38 with Brentford in 1937-38, and never scored in either season !
- 5—William Dodgin, the Southampton Manager. When he was given a free transfer as a centre half-back by Clapton Orient in May, 1939, over 2,000 followers of the Club signed a petition urging the Directors to re-sign him, but soon afterwards he was secured by Southampton.
- 6—Neil McBain, who was transferred from Manchester United, to Everton in January, 1923, and from St. Johnstone to Liverpool in March, 1927, and, after being Manager of Watford and Luton Town, became Secretary-Manager of New Brighton, his third Merseyside district Club, in June, 1946.
