HIS PLACE, TOO

RELIEVING that the time has now arrived to take drastic steps in an effort to relieve what has become a near-desperate situation, Manager Dally Duncan has made two bold moves for the vital relegation struggle with Queen's Park Rangers at Kenilworth-road on Saturday.

He has omitted from the Town team English Inter-Stobbart, for whom the Town paid their record fee to Newcastle United last October.

Great Importance League Of This Match
NOT since November 5, when the Town beat Blackburn Rovers 5-2 have the home fans had a victory at Kenilworth-soad to cheer them up, but the dire need of success in the match with the Rangers is there for anybody who takes a glance at the League table, to see.

Rangers are just below the Town with a point less from a game more, so victory is virtually worth four points in the relegation struggle.

Although Potton United had no Langue match on Saturday, their championship prospects in the Premier Division of the South Midlands League were given a decided fillip by the defeat of Cambridge Town.

Last season's champions fell at home to Rushden, who could be a championship hope themselves. Wootton Bitse Cross look like being in at the death, too, and their single goal win at Marston establishes them in second place. Next to them are Wolverton Town, who also obtained the only goal at Stewarthy.

CLEVER IN MIDFIELD

Both Glover and Waugh were clever in midfield, and the former was the more dangerous of the two, but both tended to delay their centres too long.

The length of time which the moves took to develop was a failing of the forward line, and when Kiernan made those shrewd, quick passes which he produced occasionally, they were a sure
