CLUB NOTES

ON Wednesday last, at Sheffield we had to say "goodbye" to any hopes we entertained of promotion this season. Although before this match at Sheffield we were eight points behind the leaders we had two games in hand and anything might have happened if we had come away victorious. But the four goals we conceded at Hillsboro' put paid to our dreams. We crossed over at half time two goals in arrear, but we had had by far the better chances of scoring, were playing some very nice football and finding our men much better than the opposition, but we had not that incisiveness in front of goal which the Wednesday enjoyed, thanks to their record breaking centre forward. He was always a potential danger, and with Sewell always lying well upfield beside him and leaving the defence entirely to the defenders, goals were always in the offing. Bob Morton held his man very well indeed and is to be congratulated on a very fine showing, despite Dooley's two goals. The second one Dooley scored everybody thought he was well off-side, and even then he only hit the ball with his knee and such is his luck at the moment that the ball went in an entirely different place to that which Streten expected and slowly trickled over the line with Bernard trying to regain his balance and so change direction. This was the third goal, and when two minutes later a shot hit one of our players and glanced off to their outside left standing all by himself—Seamus Dunne was lying on the ground completely knocked out—then there was never any doubt as to the final result. In the second half we had the advantage of the slight incline and the wind, and the way we had been playing in the first half felt we could even then pull the game round, but after those further two goals most of the spirit had been knocked out of our lads, whereas the Wednesday, of course, were playing with all the confidence in the world. The Wednesday are now at the top of the Second Division as a result of this win against us, and we wish them well in their remaining struggle to regain First League status.

Our opponents today from Leeds are also in the promotion hunt, and a win for them here at Kenilworth Road will be very valuable indeed in their quest. As you see from the table they are only two points behind the leaders but with a game in hand, therefore today's match is a vital one for them. They are at full strength today, for they have been able to secure the services of their tall centre-half John Charles from the Army, and as their other big problem has been the centre-forward position now happily solved for them by Barrett, who has been brought in after quite a few attempts have been made to fill this position. He scored his first League goal last Saturday, and from all accounts the Leeds supporters were very pleased with his display. The rest of the team are in their normal positions and are playing very well. Leeds were very unlucky to have to be called upon to play Chelsea in a second replay in the F.A. Cup, for they had enjoyed most of the game at Stamford Bridge in the first replay and leading by the only goal scored, when two minutes from the end a last desperate attack by Chelsea was made, with the help of centre-half Harris. The ball was lobbed into the Leeds' goalmouth, struck an upright and glanced into the net. There was no further score that day, and in the second replay Chelsea won comfortably, so Leeds lost a very good opportunity of entering the Sixth Round of the Cup, for they were undoubtedly the better team in that first replay.

We are still receiving suggestions from supporters who have worked out schemes whereby regular supporters can receive a ticket for Cup-Tie matches. It is very nice of people to take this trouble, for some of the suggestions have without doubt taken some thinking out, but unfortunately not one of them is practicable. If we were to put any of the suggestions into operation, (take as an instance the most popular one of collecting so many programmes,) if this was done everybody sending in the required number of programmes would naturally expect a seat. They would hardly be satisfied with a ticket for even the Enclosure after going to all the trouble of collecting so many programmes. We wish we could put this idea into operation for by doing it would boost our programme sales; but the final result would be more discontent than is present at the moment. We sell on an average about 8,000 programmes each first team match. The number of seats is 3,500, a quarter of which must go to the visiting Club, leaving about 2,600. Out of this 2,600 must come the Season Ticket Holders, Players and Officials, so that if only one person in four who purchased a programme took the trouble to collect them as required, there would still not be sufficient tickets to go round. That is the problem, and anyone who can solve it would receive our most grateful thanks.

The Eastern National Bus Co. are running buses, according to demand, to Coventry, on Easter Tuesday and to Birmingham on Saturday, April 26th. The fare to Coventry is 10/- and to Birmingham 12/9, and anyone interested will they please enquire direct at the Bus Company's Offices, in Park Square.
