Baynham was last in the team for a League match on October 3, 1953, against Fulham at Kenilworthroad. Then, in the floodlit match with Fenerbahce, he injured a shoulder and has never been able to regain his place since because of the way in which Streten took his chance.

NOTTS COUNTY 3 LUTON TOWN 3

A draw was sure to come the Town's way sooner or later, but it should not have happened in this match at Meadow-lane on Saturday when they were leading 3-1 eleven minutes from the end, and then had their advantage snatched away from them in a tremendous rally by the County. There were exactly three minutes to go when the home team snatched the goal that put them level for the first time since the second minute of the game when Morton made a great start to his latest spell as a centre-forward. That he can do the job and McCormack right out of the

Their luck was out, too, in the first minute after the resumption when Turner made a brilliant dribble, ending with a pass to Davies, from whose centre Morton got the ball into the net

Unfortunately, in doing so, the ball ran up his arm and the referee disallowed the point as he had on one occasion in the first balf for bands against

There was never any disputing the fact that the Town were the superior side despite the fact that the County had quite lengthy spells of pressure which yielded From the Town attack there always more constructive skill and further goals to them Iways seemed a likely happening

However, they had to wait until the 79th minute when ADAM stopped a clearance by Deans and went on to beat Bradley with a shot that went in off the post. That seemed to signal the end of the County, but they hit back unexpectedly through BROAD-BENT two minutes later when he fastened on to a through pass

As if this was the tonic they 8.18, had been awaiting, the County suddenly began a period of all-out attack which had the Town in difficulties before the equal-iser came three meutes from time

This followed a corner from which WYLIE came out of the ruck of players in the crowded penalty area to head into the net. ATTACK BENEFITED FROM MORTON'S DRIVE

Disappointing though the final result was, it was no mean feat o gain a point from a team that has been most consistent at ome this season.

Compared with recent displays, there was more all-round power in the Town team, with the forward line benefiting a great deal from the drive of Morton in the middle, combined with his good distribution of the ball, Best support for him came rom Turner who used the through pass to good effect-something that Groves would have done well to copy - and rom Adam, who was fast and direct and who showed a marked improvement on recent displays. The heavy going was against Groves, but he might have nelped himself considerably had e parted with the ball more readily, and Davies improved a somewhat uncertain after

Despite the three goals against them, there was a lot of satis-faction to draw from the work of the defence, strengthened by the return of Owen, who played
