HAMMERS ALSO SATISFIED FOR IMPORTANT MATCH

"It is about time that we had a settled team," said Manager Dally Duncan yesterday in announcing that the side that beat Liverpool would do duty in the important match with West Ham at the Boleyn Ground on Saturday. So far as forwards are con-cerned, the Town have tittle or nothing in the way of resources which they can call upon from their "A" team and, if the worst comes to the worst, they might Important because the Town are now within striking distance of the leading positions, only three points behind the top team. Blackburn Rovers, and a couple of points from the Hammers, who are three places behind them in the League table, would do much to establish them even more firmly in the promotion race.

further changing.
Three players, Seamus Dunne,
Wally Shanks and Gordon Turner all received slight knocks against Liverpool, but all have recovered and Dunne and Turner were both able to play in Tuesday's trial

For Shanks, there has been treatment and light training for a shoulder injury, but he will be fit for the visit to West Ham.
