

NO DANGER — YET!

BUT— TOWN MUST “BREAK THEIR DUCK” SOON

Luton lost another two home points on Saturday—they went down to lowly Huddersfield, 2—1. So the disappointed fans have to wait, again, to see the Town pick up their first points of 1956.

DAVIES'S NEAR MISS

This was the moment that had the local fans roaring for an equaliser. It was the first half, and already the Town were one down. Suddenly, Davies connected with a Cummins pass—and only this brilliant finger-tip save by Wheeler saved the winger from scoring.—R6206M

Wheeler nearly lost this one! He went down on one knee to intercept a cross from left-winger, Jimmy Adam.... missed it with his right arm, and just managed to grab it, on the second attempt. Pity! MacEwan was waiting.—R6205M.

ADAM WAS OFFSIDE

Jimmy Adam's offside goal. He beat Wheeler with a fine left-foot shot, but the referee promptly disallowed the goal on an appeal from a linesman. In fact, it looked as though three Town forwards were offside at the time.—R6208M

Peter MacEwan, with tongue out and determination written all over his face, leaps into the air to beat goalkeeper Wheeler to the ball—but his header goes OUTSIDE the post.—R6202M
