TWO POINTS HELD FROM THE LAST THREE GAMES SHOULD SEE LEICESTER CITY TO SAFETY, BUT THREE MUST SE THEIR TARGET FOR A FINAL TOTAL OF 34. TO REACH 34, SUNDERLAND MUST TAKE THE MAXIMUM FROM THEIR THREE MATCHES, AND THE MOST SHEFFIELD WEDNESDAY CAN GET 13 33.

The City have to play West Bromwich Albion at The Hawthorns next Saturday, Tottenham at home the following week and Birmingham away in the closing game. All tough commitments, but goodness knows, they should have gained terrific confidence from that second half revival against Luton Town at Filbert-street yesterday. At half-time he who deared to predict a 4—1 win for Leicester who made fools of us all by turning the match inside out, and remping away to that very result. Luton had one goal on the sheet—a 20th-minute one by Canada and the first sheet of the sheet

THEY SAID IT COULD NOT BE DONE. NO LEICESTER TIGERS' SIDE FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS HAS BEEN ABLE TO WIN ALL THREE GAMES ON THE EASTER TOUR, SO THE 1958 SEASON WILL LONG LIVE IN THE PLAYERS' MEMORY, FOR THIS TIME THREE CHAMPAGNE VICTORIES WERL' RECORLED.

With Gristol and Plymouth accounted for, only Exeter stood in the way of a hat-trick. But as this was the third match in four days there were fears that the side may have lost its edge.
For the first 15 minutes of

looked like becoming a reality.
Exeter led by a try and a

much the smarter side.

Freer in form

It was merely a question of how many points the Tigers would score. Freer, fulfilling the pro-mise of two years aro, dropped a goal to put them in the lead, a goal to put them in the lead. Elders ended with Beadale crossing for a try which Gavins could not convert. The elusive Freer

A USK made easier

When Exeter did manage to win
the ball their outsides ran indecisively. They were apprehensive whenever Eddras and Wade shaped to tackle so the Tigers' task was made easier.

Elders crowned the tour — he played in all three games—by score under the posts for Gavine
to goal and place Leicester 16-6
ahead.
