Leeds United 1 Luton 1

RATINGS: Skill—Leeds 5, Luton 7. Entertainment 6.
Sportsmanship 8. Control 8.

LUTON were streets ahead in footballing sense, but they were shot-shy, as indeed, were Leeds. Luton had the excuse that Wilbur Cush kept a tight hold on goal-getter Gordon Turner.

Turner snatched a goal, though, in the 21st minute. It came after a bad blunder by Cush. Jimmy Adams was away off beam with his centre, but Cush's deflection put the ball right in Turner's path.

Leeds' equaliser came when Noel Peyton was lying injured on the edge of the area after 63 minutes.

Referee Cooper allowed play to continue, and when Bob Forrest was crash-tackled by Ken Hawkes, young Chris Crowe smashed in a penalty off the crossbar.

Struggling again

But it's clear that Leeds will again be among the First Division strugglers.

A programme note told us that every player on the United books has a ball of his own—42 in all. I don't think Ron Baynham would have been all that bothered if the lot had been trotted out here.

Leeds were obsessed with the idea of making progress by heading or passing backwards and chance after chance was frittered away.
