

BINGHAM GOES SOLO

Blackpool.....3 Luton Town...0

RATINGS.—Skill: Blackpool 7.
Luton 7. Entertainment 7.
Sportsmanship 9. Control 8

WHY are Luton slipping down, down, down that League table? NOT because of heavier grounds—the hardy Luton annual. But simply because they are becoming the poorest shots in the First Division.

They should have had Blackpool well beaten before half-time. They were sound in defence, immaculate in approach-work. BUT with the single and honourable exception of Billy Bingham, they didn't have a forward who looked remotely capable of scoring.

Blackpool, on the other hand, had lads like Ray Charnley Jackie Mudie and Bill Perry. Perry hit one from 30 yards—and insists he really did intend to score.

GOALS.—Mudie (43), Charnley (53), Perry (62).
