

TOWN STILL SLIDING

Another two points lost; this time at bracing Blackpool. And again it was that old Luton problem—lack of finish—which proved their downfall. One goal down at half-time, they were still in the game until Blackpool made it 3—0 within the first 19 minutes of the second half. ABOVE: Turner kept trying, this time hitting the upright, with Jackie Wright moving in fast to intercept. RIGHT: Brown has a chance . . . but Farm is just as quick with those fists.

Centre-forward Charnley—he scored Blackpool's second goal—tries to break through and have another shot, but Owen and Groves team up to get the ball away. LEFT: Charnley again, but
