

HE'S FLUFFED IT AGAIN!

He's done it again—missed another penalty. Gordon Turner, once voted the man most likely to succeed from the spot, fluffed another kick in front of the Kenilworth-road crowd, on Saturday, and lost the chance of an equaliser. So Luton went down one-nil to Birmingham. LEFT: And here's the shot which zipped past the post.—R1628T. ABOVE: Daredevil Merrick stopping 'em at all costs! He throws himself at Brown's feet, forcing the Luton leader to clip his shot outside the post.—R1627T.

How to draw the Birmingham defence—the Cummins way. He lost the ball, but won a corner.—R1630T.

What a scrum in the Birmingham goal area, with Brown and Turner trying desperately to work their way out of the of blue shirts.—R1631T.