

A Morton header zooms towards the top of the net, but Farm leaps and punches it over the bar. Brown is close behind, waiting for a chance.

That "it can't be" look on George Farm's face as the Luton fans go mad and the Town players surge around Billy Bingham, slapping him on the back for the snap goal

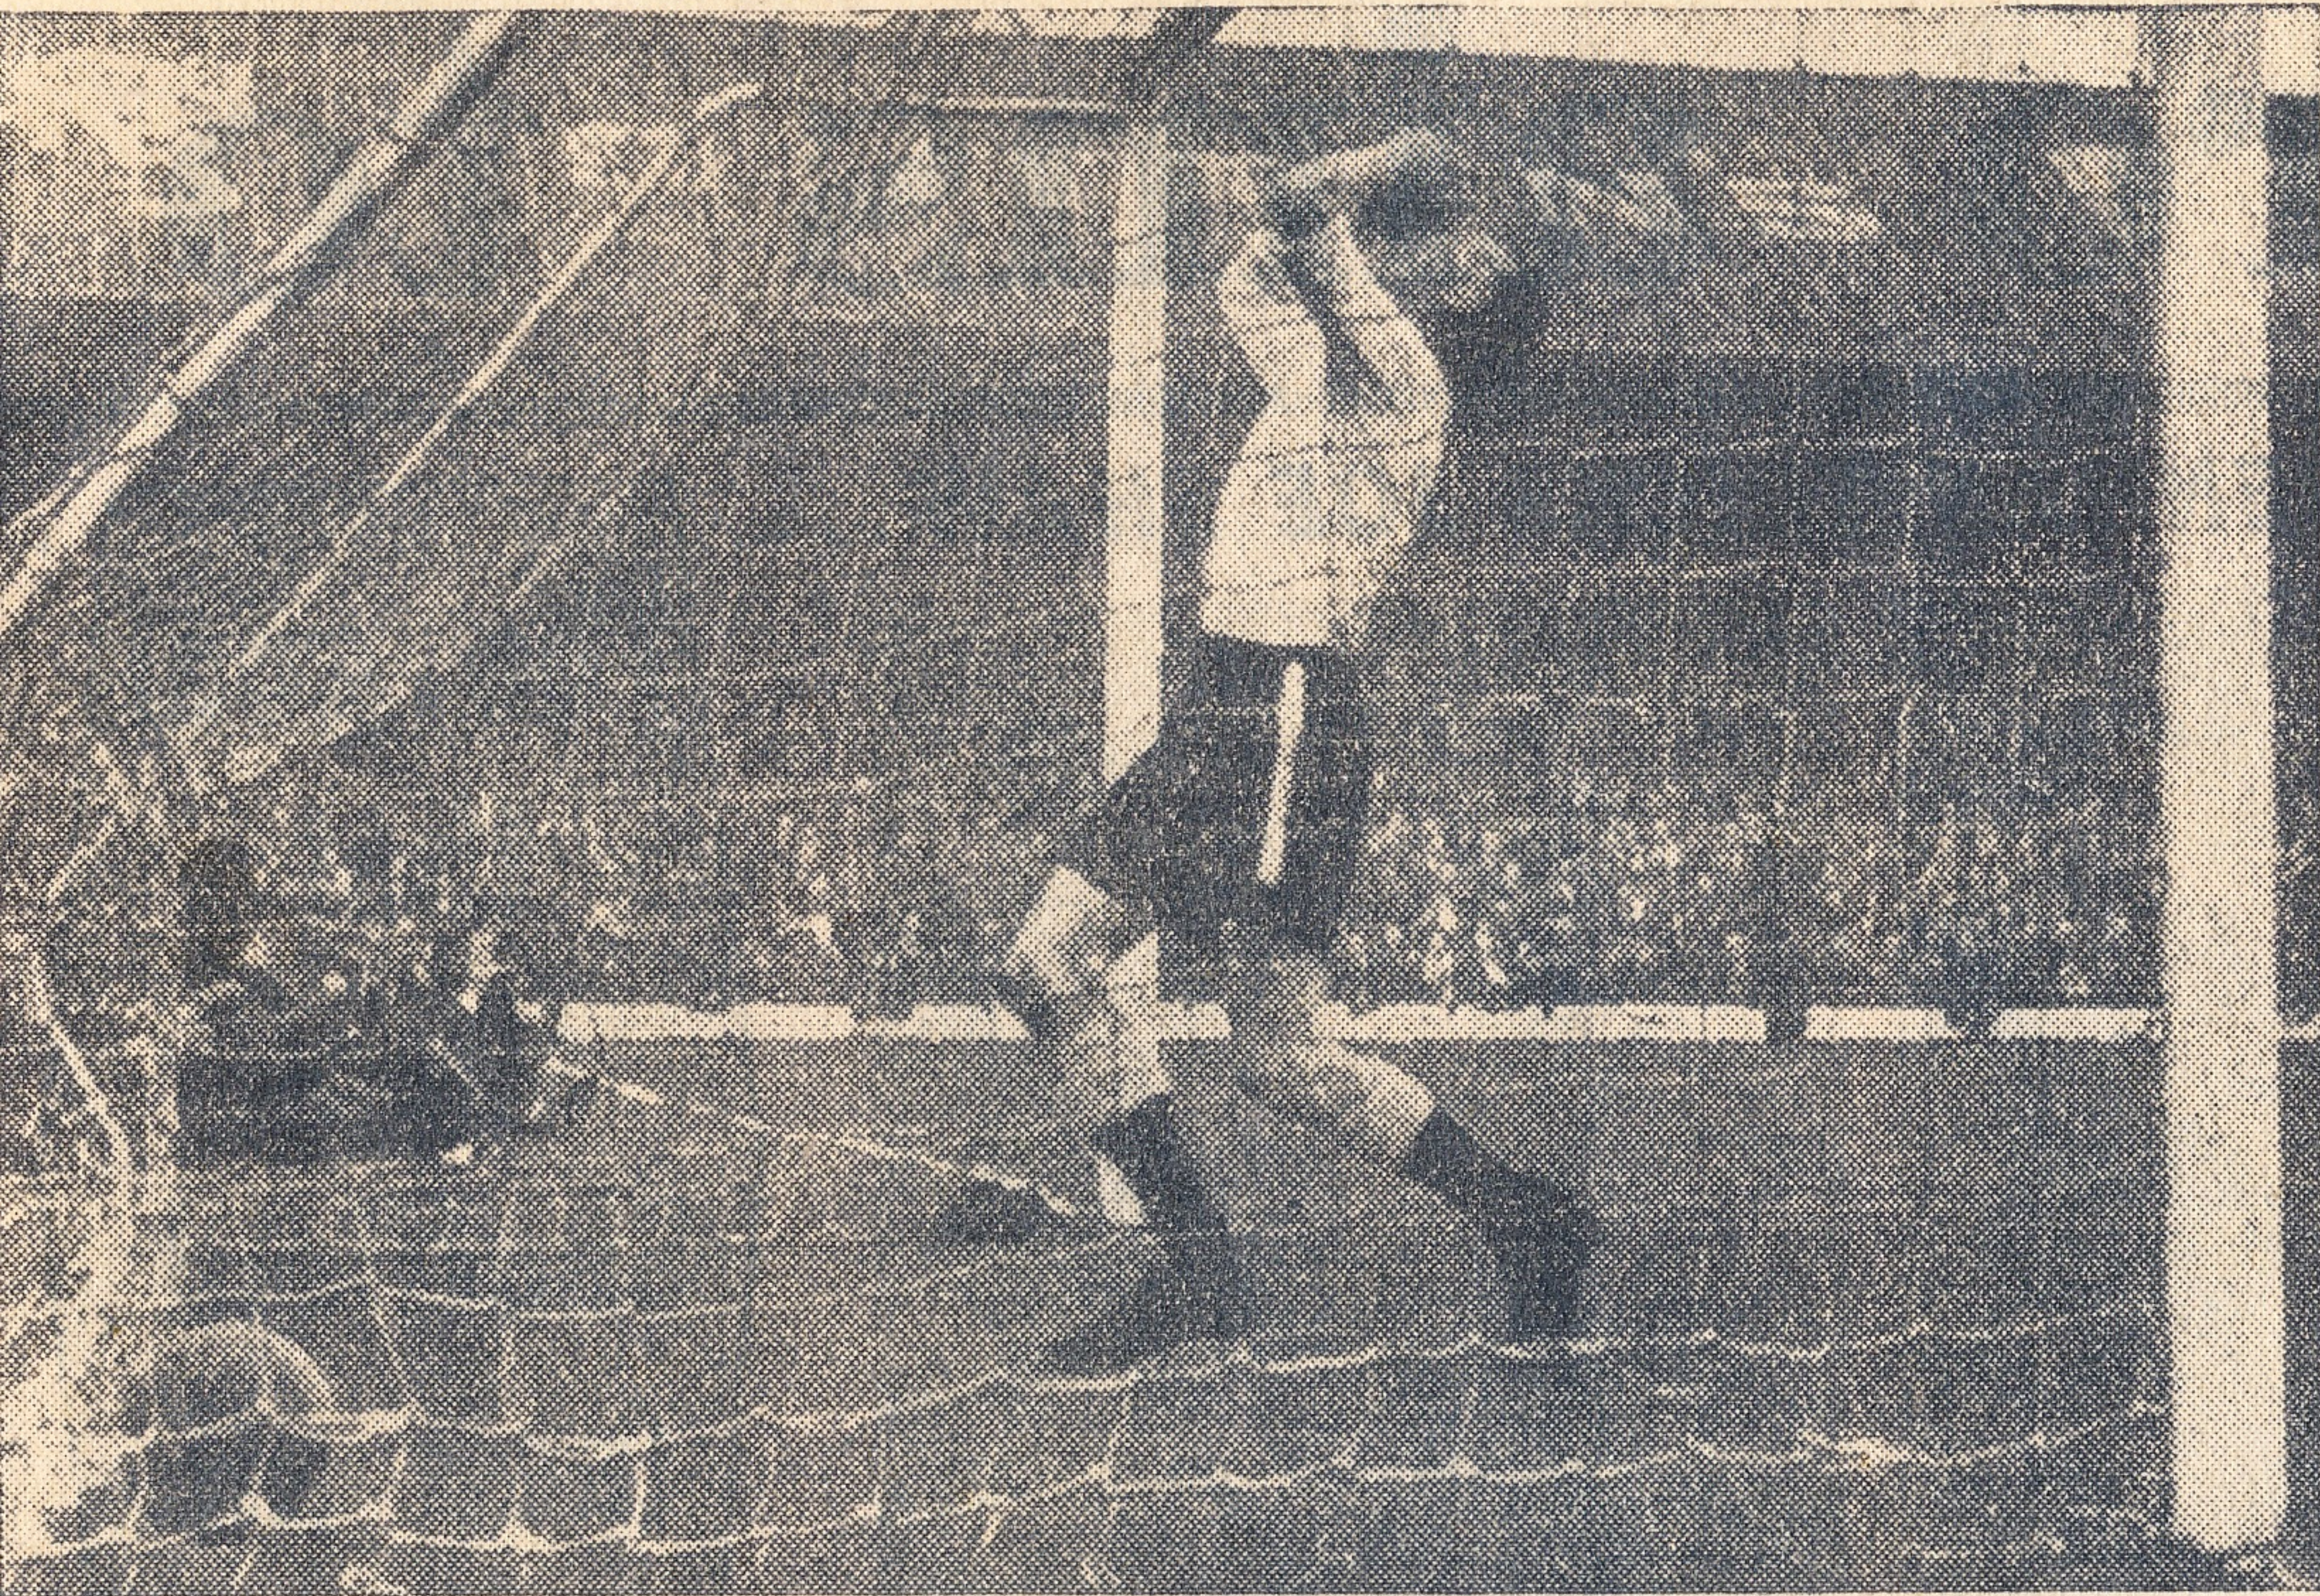

It is the last kick of the match—and the most dramatic. A poor back pass from Luton full-back Ken Hawkes, and Ray Charnley comes pouncing in. He sprawls, but his shot has beaten 'keeper Baynham and . . .

(BELOW) there is not a thing in the world agonised Syd Owen can do to stop Blackpool's equaliser.

NO WORDS NEEDED

With almost the last kick of the match Blackpool have equalised... and the agony of Luton's moment is eloquently expressed without words by centre-half Sid Owen Blackpool's half-back, Hauser, lies spreadeagled in the goalmouth—out cold. He, Brown and Farm had jumped for a high one together, and the goalkeeper clipped him on the jaw in clearing.

A CLOSE CALL!

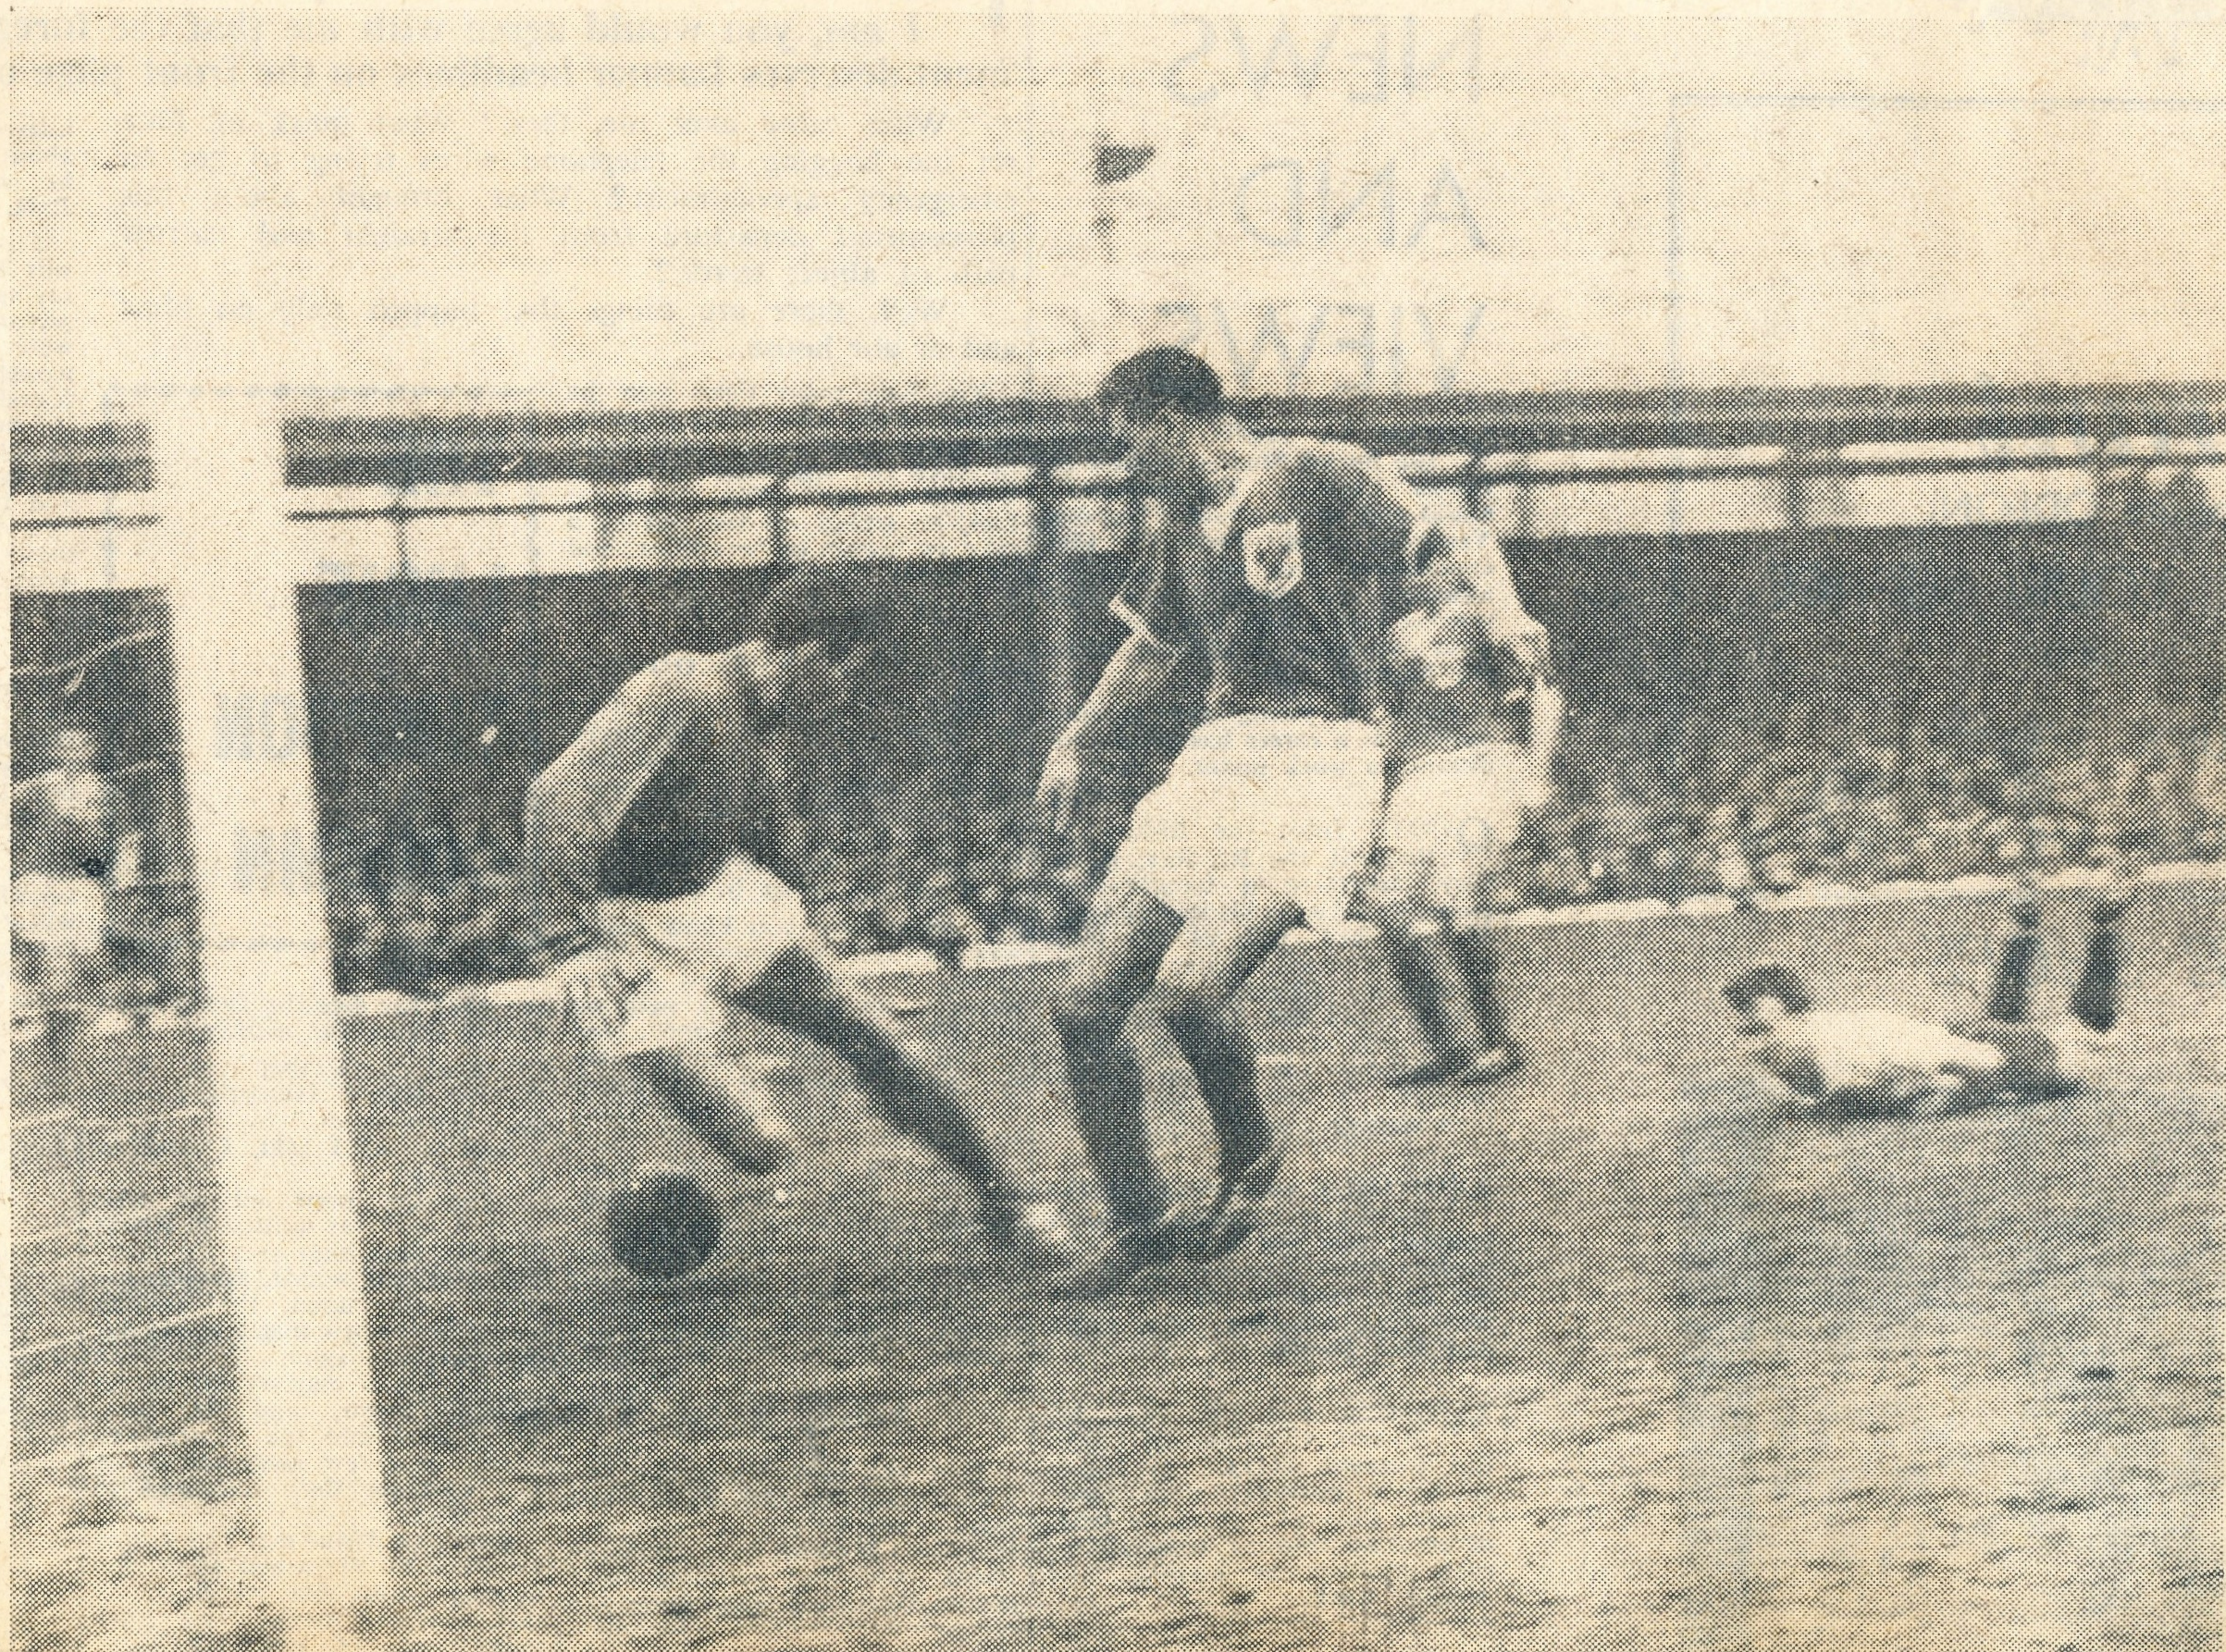

Luton's outside-left, Tony Gregory, is all alone as he snaps on to a loose ball on the edge of the Blackpool goal area. As he positions himself for a shot 4,000 Luton fans roar encouragement. Goalkeeper George Farm advances in desperation as a Luton goal seems certain. But the winger's kick was misdirected, and the Blackpool goal had a lucky let-off.—Photo: Tom Sheen.

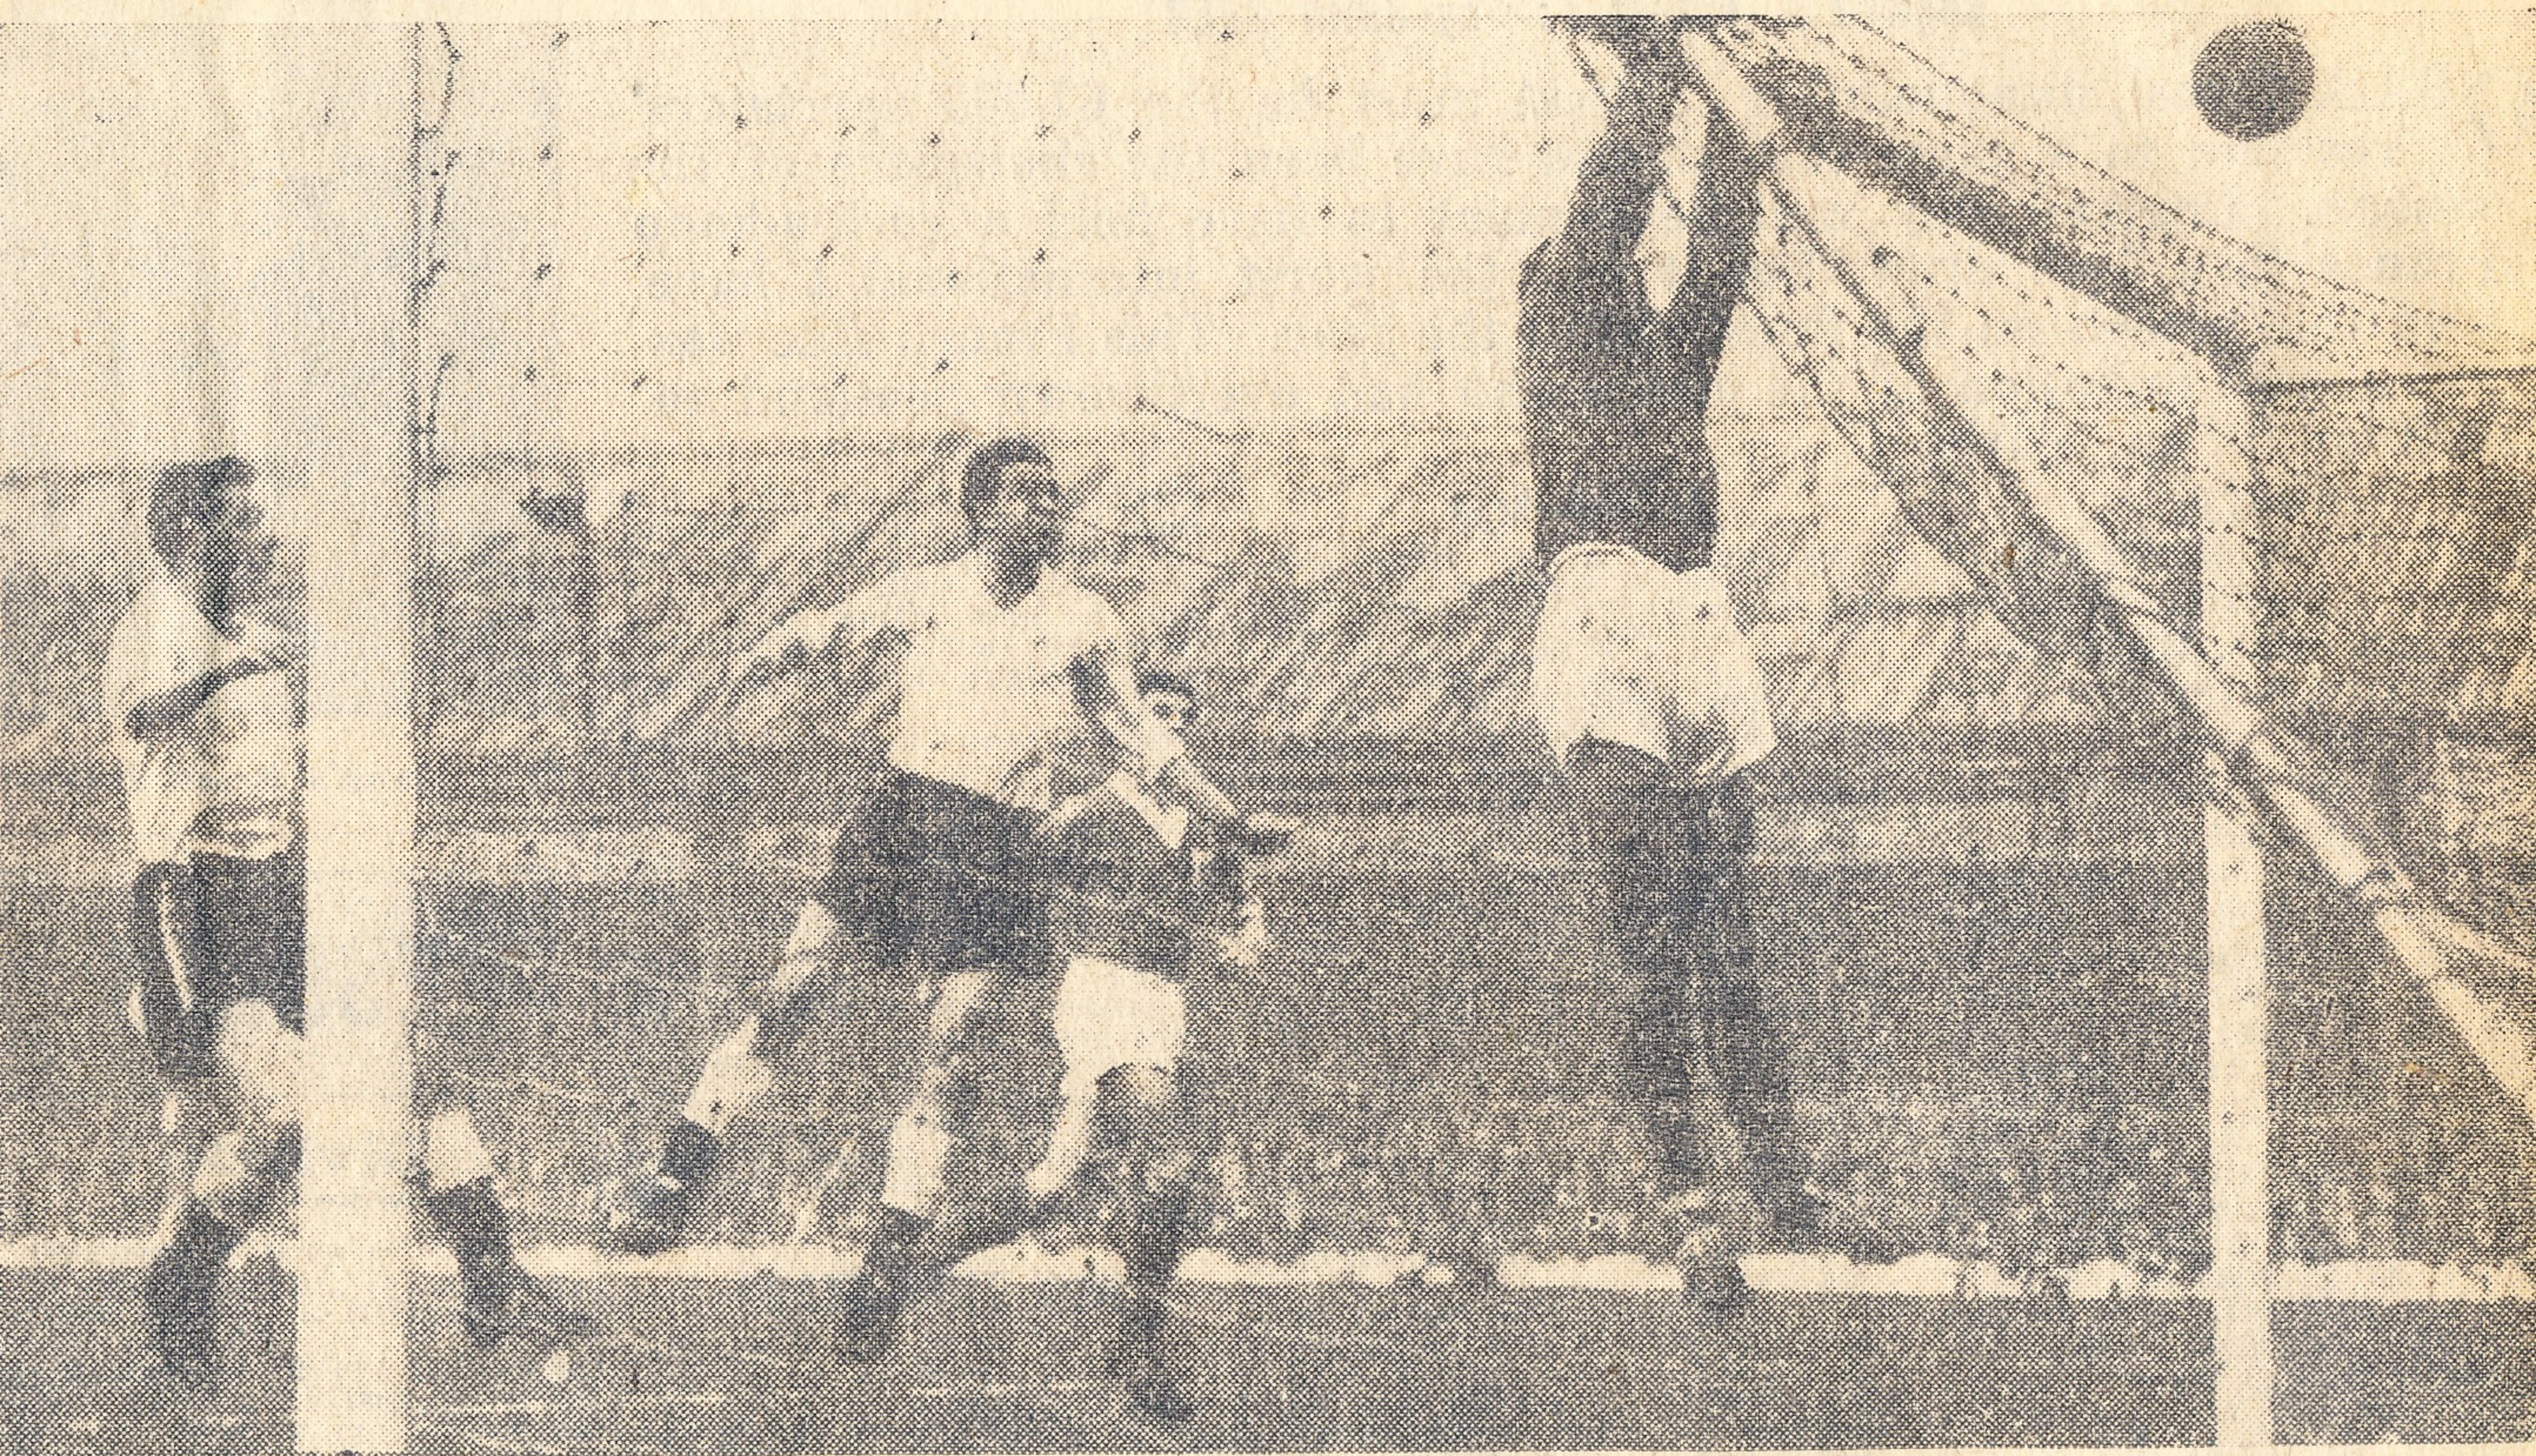

MY, WHAT A GOAL!

Then Blackpool Snatch Last-Second Equaliser

BINGHAM DOES IT IN 84th MINUTE

The 84th minute. Still no score, and you can cut the tension with a knife. Morton picks up a long ball and closes in; a knee-high pass across the goalmouth—and there's Bingham diving on to it . . . Thud! He first-times the centre between Farm's legs and, as the Blackpool defenders try to sort themselves out, it skids into the net. With a roar, 4,000 Luton fans go mad with excitement. IT'S A GOAL!

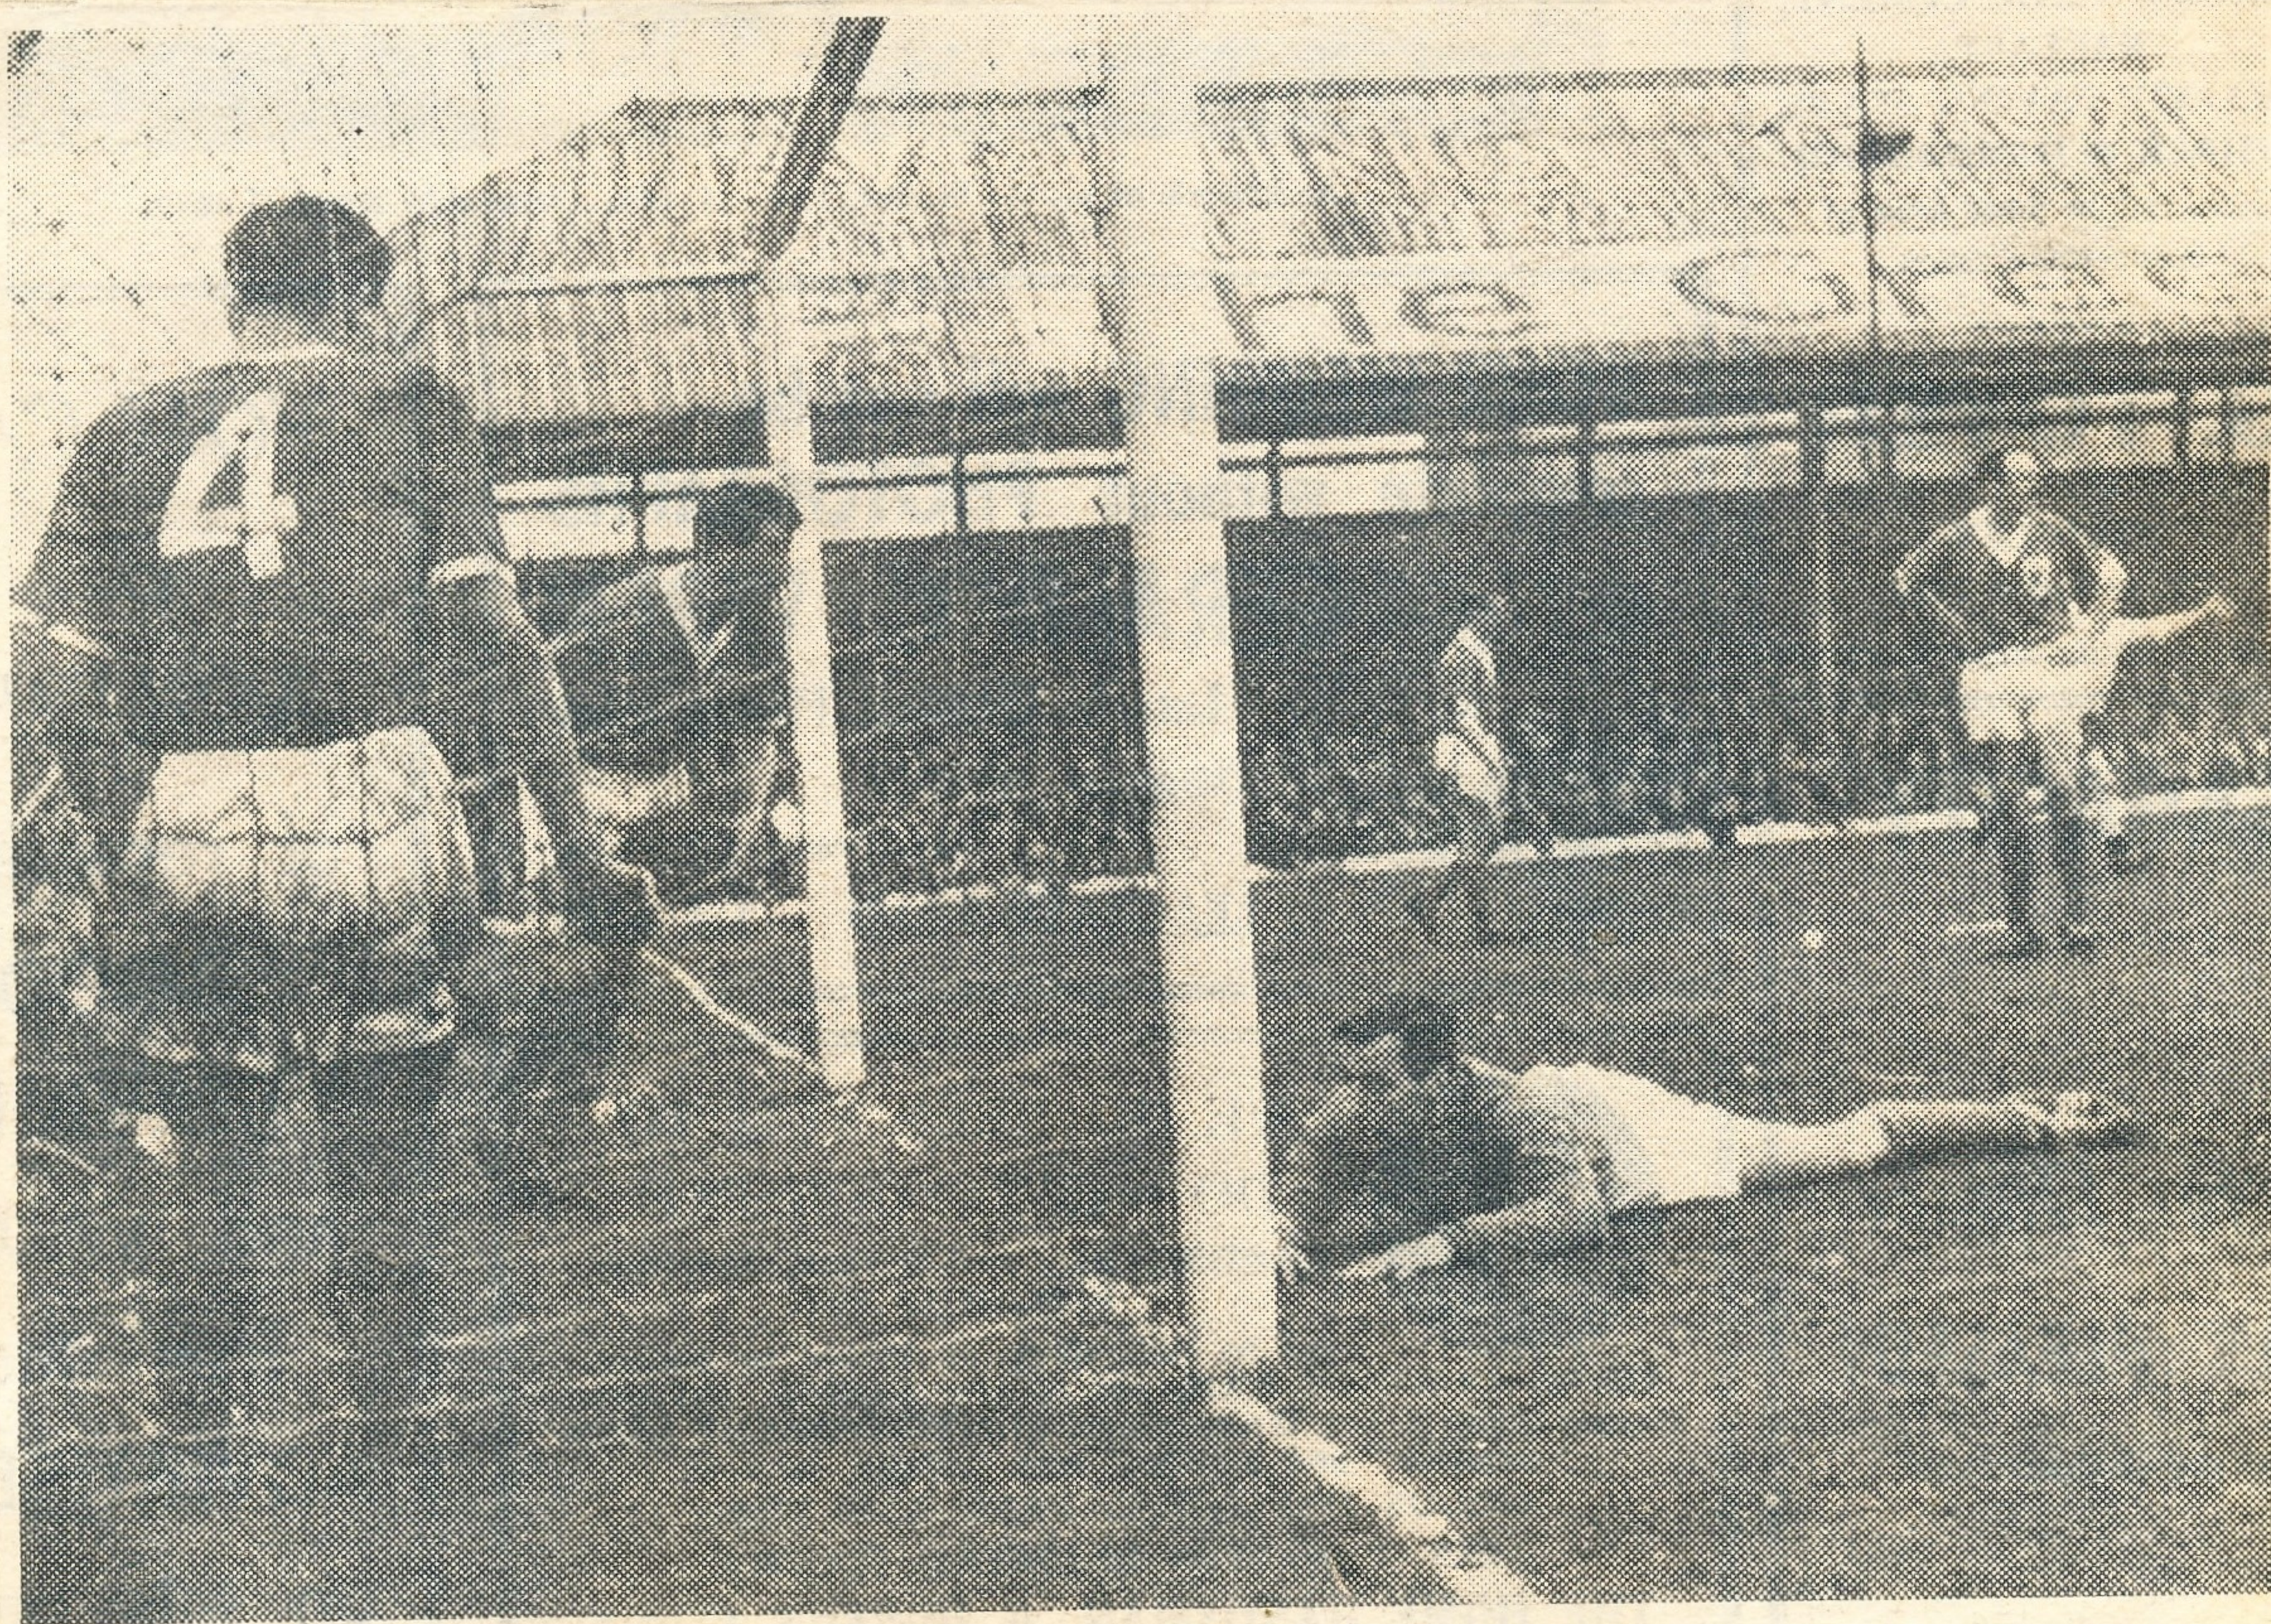

● Over comes a centre from Luton outside right Billy Bingham, but, as inside right Allan Brown and centre forward Bob Morton rush in to challenge, Blackpool goalkeeper George Farm tips the ball behind for a corner.
