

WATCH OUT FOR ALLAN BROWN —AT WING HALF

Luton Town 1, Fulham 1

BEWARE of Allan Brown, Luton goal-grabber — as a right-half!

Luton manager Syd Owen moved him there in the hope that he would regain his confidence—and he was the man of the match.

He subdued Johnny Haynes and gave excellent support to the attack.

Tony Macedo fumbled in a way that disturbed his supporters for an England cap but he was beaten only once—in the 84th minute when John Warner beat him.

But Luton's joy was short lived because a minute later Trevor Chamberlain, Fulham's most dangerous forward, equalised.

Luton played with a new spirit, and young left-back, Alan Daniel, staked a claim for a League team place.
