

ABOVE: A mix-up in the Luton penalty area during Saturday's game against Derby County. Right-half Brown and Derby left-winger Powell were both grounded during this attack on the Town goal, and it was left to centre-half Groves to get the ball clear. RIGHT: Groves again in action. This time he heads away a dangerous centre from the Derby right-wing, with Brown standing by in case of a slip.

Collier To The Rescue

