

Argyle Aerobatics

An attack on the Luton goal, but the Town defenders make a concerted effort and another Plymouth attack comes to nothing in Saturday's League match, which Luton won by three goals to nil.

61/62 Luton's Away Success At The Second Attempt

Luton Town, the team who seemed incapable of winning away matches last season, have done so at the second attempt this season. On Saturday, they defeated Plymouth Argyle by three goals to nil, and thus took their fourth point from three games. This is the sort of form which may well see them in the promotion race later on.

Centre-half Kelly is ready to lend support if necessary as Plymouth centre-forward Alex Jackson goes up for the ball with Luton goalkeeper Ron Baynham. But there's no need for Kelly to worry—the ball is safely gathered and cleared. Another Plymouth attack comes to nothing.

Aerobatics at Plymouth, as Luton goalkeeper Ron Baynham punches the ball off the head of centre-forward Keith Williams with defender in support and Plymouth attackers seeking an opportunity.