

HUDDERSFIELD TRIUMPH 61/62

Luton 3 Huddersfield 4

AN entertaining and exciting match of this nature each week would surely bring the missing crowds back to Kenilworth Road—even though Luton might be on the losing side once in a while.

This was a real and tough tussle played at a terrific pace in blistering heat with thrills all the way. In the end Huddersfield deserved the points.

Only the superlative brilliance of Fearnley saved Huddersfield, and even he succumbed early in the second-half when Luton built up a 3-1 lead. Then Huddersfield's great fighting spirit and ability began to show.

Constant Attack

With a heave they thrust Luton back, and for the last 30 minutes completely dominated the game, shooting fiercely and bombarding Baynham with drives from every angle.

Dinsdale gave Huddersfield the lead after eight minutes, Luton equalising 30 minutes later from an own goal by Coddington.

Lornie (50 mins.) and McKechnie (55 mins.) put Luton ahead, but Huddersfield won the game with goals from Stokes (57 and 82 mins.) and Saward (70 minutes).

Luton : Baynham; McNally, Bramwell; Morton, Kelly, Groves; Walden, Ashworth, Turner, McKechnie, Lornie.

Huddersfield : Fearnley; Parker, Wilson; Saward, Coddington, Dinsdale; McHale, Kerray, Stokes, Massie, O'Grady.

Referee: B. J. Lea (Nottingham)